Published by Andover Central School Printed by Andover News Member of A. C. S. P. A.

The Hi Heral

Editor - Jeanne Stevens Asst. Editor -, Jo Anne Theetge Faculty Advisor, Mrs. Marie McFadden

VOL. XI.

ANDOVER, N. Y. DEC. 26, 1946

NO. 16

VERY MERRY CHRISTMAS TO ALL

"The Miracle at Christmas"

by Doris Van Curen

The wind shricked thru the haunted the mother.

enough to keep them alive and inations. even half clothed. The worst of it was, Christmas was only two weeks away and she had no mon- Christmas Poems Santa would reconsider and make written by Rose Marie Baker. an assembly, held in the audi-thru the deep snow to school; week's paper. each day the mother worked her was "nestled all snug in her bed, Honor Roll while visions of sugar plums danced in her head."

The mother sat dejected, tears Dec. 13, 1946. streaming down her face. Her First Honors: many years ago when her husband had left her for reasons unnone below 85%.

In three major subjects with room. Never expecting anyline with room. Never expecting anyline with room. Never expecting anyline with room.

The sound of a car door, then Baker, James Burgett, a knock brought her back to the Theetge, Donald Scott. present. Slowly she went to the Second Honors: door. A new shiny black car Pupils having an average of Why! would anyone wish to only chance he had. stood out front and who was this 95% in three major subjects take their cane? Was it the well dressed man at the door? with none below 80%.

What was he doing here? As she Jeanne Stevens, Phyllis Temple, lish Class? The Freshmen would Harvey - Inc. lo." He had a Christmas tree in Phyllis Burdick, John one hand, a sack of decorations Katherine Joyce, Phyllis in the other, as he stepped into Robert Baker, Gloria and decorate the wee tree he had Smith, Joseph Smith. brought. Upon finishing he turn- To be on the honor roll phys- It was a good thing all those ing. Gee, today in pep assembly ed to the startled, mystified wo- ical education and music marks canes on Mr. Conde's tree were students of ACS were in the man.

His face looked very familiar. Then she knew! Here was her long lost husband. Carefully he Roving Reporter left her in the care of a rich this year, isn't it?" friend who had been killed in an | auto accident before he had time It's improverd so much, too." to arrange for her keep until her husband could earn enough money to keep them comfortably and into a great club." repay him. Her husband had not! known of the tragedy until he returned to the town early this evening. He had laden the tree with you. after Christmas he was taking them to a new home in a new Cheerleading town where they could be happy, also where he could make up to Practice Tuesday them all the unhappiness they had known in the past years.

a miracle at Christmas,"

Slow Process

men are always good natured?" was designated for practice. "Probably because it takes them so long to get mad clear ...through."

A. C. S. Students Enjoy Christmas Vacation

who sat in the dark, mocking sil-this week, for the Holiday va-I see that some of the A. C. S. ence. Her tiny daughter was cation began Friday noon, De-students did not show up at the The dinner is to fill you up safely tucked in bed, but the cember 20th, and school will re-game Thursday night. Many of fact that her hungry little stom-open January 2nd. By that time them, we notice, took books ach held but a scant supper, the students should be rested up home to study-during the vacaand ready to get back to the tion. She had been able to find so regular work, since January is little work this winter, barely the month for mid-year exam- Pupils Hold ey, not even enough for one Christmas poems were written School held homeroom Christmas small doll to give her daughter. by the Sophomore Class. Out of parties Friday, December 20th, And then it is New Years, Must she tell her the dreaded se-the three best ones, written by with the exchange of gifts. cret all mothers must tell their Rose Marie Baker, "Christmas The grade rooms played games To bring bright new calendars half-grown children? Six years Eve," Rose Mary Mead, "Christ-and were treated with candy by And to throw away old ones. was too young! There must be mas Day"; and Norma Perry their teachers. a way to keep that childish be- "Christmas Sentiment;" was lief. She would do anything if chosen the best one which was parties the whole school went to Forever Ambush a visit to their humble little The third best one was "Santa torium, at 9:30 a. m. JW-RB me.

Each day the child trudged off The best one will appear in next Who Ate fingers to the bone and pondered. High School lay grew closer! Then it High School what she had done or what had Patricia Fulton, Patricia Ludden, it, they placed no guard and lo! acquired a new hubba hubba happened to cause him to go? | Doris Wintemberg, Rose wondered he spoke a kind "Hel-Robert Burger, Norma Perry, like a solution to this mystery if Oh, dear! It's 6:30. I hope: the room and started to set up Maxine Filler, Joyce Linza, Betty thing to be eaten by those of the season is an important must be passing also.

nad left her, why he had come tion I'd like to present you with back. It seems he had left her a statement and see if you agree not only the small bank account, with me. And I'm sure you will. Ag. News long since used, but also he had "Wonderful ball team we have

Lawrence Hoyt-"Yes." Harold Dodge-"Yea, not bad." Well fellows, that's what few fellow classmates think

"Surely," said the grateful, have decided to have cheerlead-forgiving mother, "This is not ing practice once a week, on ple, milk.

| bread and butter sandwich, ap| sode to find a coupla seats, Har| ple, milk.
| vey immediately takes keen noonly a most wonderful gift, but Tuesday, 8th period, starting A'-la-carte: fruit salad, a miracle at Christmas." with the New Year with the New Year.

They feel this will work out sugar cookies. better than the previous arrange- Friday "I wonder why it is that fat ment when no special period cheese, spinach, bread and but accepts, the visiting teams. Stu-

Did You Go to the Christmas and Game Thursday Night?

trees, tossed the falling snow and The pupils of A. C. S. are en- As a result of report cards be-HW-BM

Christmas Parties

The pupils in Andover Central

The Cane?

Mystery! Spooks! It has us an unknown admirer. baffled. Who ate the candy cane Joyce Linza and George Phil-End of Third Marking Period, the Freshmen homeroom? Yes it's gone allright.

> Mary and behold! when they returned man. Not bad Phyllis! Bridge, anyone knows what happened my friend Harvey doesn't forget Nye, Perhaps the Freshmen could sup-we had a date tonight. After all, Clair, ply a box of cookies or some-the first home basketball game hungry individuals. event for any history in the mak-not candy.

English and History students assurance for victory over our like to eat the Christmas tree opponent Allentown. Allentown decorations, but will not reveal is without a Junior Varsity, contold her his story, the reason he This week instead of the questithe names for the first offense. sequently "great Wellsville" is

On Tuesday, December 17th, Jeanne Stevens-"Yes, it is eighth period, the 4-H Club met for two-it's Harvey. to finish electing their officers. My friend loses no time in find-Phyllis Nye-"Yes, I agree." Carl Atwell was elected presi-Jim Smith—"Yes, they grew dent, Billy McNeil as vice presi- ing a familiar face and it is Mr. dent, Kent Harder as secretary and Richard Fulton as treasurer ble, Rose Mary Baker is joking blow Wheaton was also elected ble, Rose Mary Baker is joking a as news reporter.

About 20 members were pres-

Thursday Mrs. Green and Mr. Kessler sliced meat, creamed cabbage, As we leave their joking epidents, that is a compliment in itter, fruit juice, milk.

A'-la-carte fruit cup, assorted self, thanks to the faculty and sandwiches, ice cream.

New Years

By Ruth Shutt The season's greetings expresses Wishes and hopes sincere laughed at the downcast woman joying their Christmas vacation ing issued, Wednesday, Dec. 18, For health and joy and happiness To last all thru the year.

> And offer you good health While cards, candy or presents Wintemberg out there shooting Are worth much more wealth.

you joy

And much more happiness A candy cane or just a toy Your pleasure you must confess.

But once a year it comes

It seems the Freshmen enjoyed themselves immensely enroute to the Richburg game.

Mary Ellen Conners seems to be making some competition for a certain Junior girl.

Robert Baker seems to have from off the Christmas tree in lipson seem to be quite the

As a means of decoration the Eadie Dunham and Betty Howof Freshmen placed a candy cane land certainly wish there were known. Would she ever know Audrey Baker, Dolores Ellis, one to get hungry enough to eat Phyllis Nye seems to have Joan to their room at the end of their Frannie Green certainly made classes on Thursday morning, a lot of points during the half the cane was gone. Who! and at the Richburg game. That's the highest of school spirits when We have learned that certain Coach Chaffee uttered words of going to be obliging and send their Junior Varsity team. What a game! Will ya look at that snazzy little red car-just room

Bronson taking tickets at the door. What seems to be the trouabout something—as usual. Mr. Bronson I guess has been getting MAH-MTJ colder by inches standing there in the cold hall, but his hands seem to be getting the worst of it. Rosey has found a pair of girl's fuzzy mittens and donates them to him with the compliments Victory Lunch: mashed potato, of ACS, to keep his hands warm. as- tice of the new purple and white cream, cheerleaders' uniforms. His startling comment was "Wow-excuse my slang." He also tells me with the new Student Council.

The game begins with the proud and haughty Senior Varsity coming out onto the court. First, Jim has the ball, then Bill and now Earl and he makes a basket—no doubt by now Pat Fulton is really drooling. Let's see-Hey Pat-Patti do you want my handkerchief? Harvey is stunned but understands my crude manner of being a lady... Harvey just asked me if it were Barb than those two foul shots instead of Bob Gorsuch. What a trouncing Allentown is taking—but I know The three, 'tis true, will bring just how they feel, didn't we feel the same way when Alfred-Almond triumphed over us a couple of weeks ago? According to talkative Betty Smith, she, too, has a feeling of sentiment for them. Harvey I find has become completely engrossed in a conversation carried on between Lila (Continued on Page Seven.)

> CHRISTING

A VERY MERRY CHRISTMAS TO ALL

with Health and Happiness for the New Year is our wish.

R. J. Sootheran Law Office

Merry Christmas

And to thank you for your patronage during the past year.

> WHITAKER'S STATION ATLANTIC