$2.50 year; 7c copy

The Allegany County Board of Thanksgiving for the World Supervisors voted last week to lease the Eggleston Park property to Jim and Don Morris of Wellsville and include in the lease. an option to purchase the property for $10,000.

This is to be so drawn that use of the property would carry out the purpose of serving the youth of Allegany county for which the park was given to the county by Mrs. Hattie B. Eggleston, well known former resident of Andover, whose desire was that the property always be used for the recreation and education of young

The county will reserve a portion of the property as a picnic ground for use of parents of youngsters attending camps there. The Morris brothers operated a camp at the park last summer.
