Be Held January 20-22

William Hodnett, of Fillmore, chairman of the Allegany County Farm Show, reports that the plans have been completed for the 1st Farm Show in Allegany County to be held January 20-21-22 at the Alfred Agricultural and Technical

Mr. Hodnett said the Farm Bureau Dairy, Potato and Poultry Committees agreed early last year to combine the Annual Dairy Congress usually helff at Friendship; Poultry Convention, held at Belfat; and the Potato Show held in Wellsville, into one big event, This, he said was to make more efficient use of agents', speakers' and exhibitors' time, also to attract better speakers and more exhibits that farmers would be in-

The chairman stated that won-🛥 derful facilities have been made available at Alfred, and that already exhibitors space was about taken up. He said that only exhititors interested should contact William Hueg at Alfred, who is chairman of the Trade Show.

Mr. Hodnett said that the three day event will feature separate sessions for the Dairy, Pot to and Poultry people in the morning and
