Sportsmanship Hurrah! By Charity Howland

I want to congratulate the students*for the fine sportsmanshi they have displayed at all the games except one. With this throught that future games will be like previous ones we shall find Andover holding two champ-

Downbeats

By "Ginny" Gibbe Have you noticed how happy the junior and senior chorus members are this week? New music has arrived and all the students are enthused over this so let's see what they are:

Here are some of the numbers which Mr. Holden has selected for the senior chorus: "Blue Tango" Some of the students have said they never heard the words to this hear the finishing touches given to this popular song hit. Let's get on to the other selections: "Where in the World." "Way Over Jorden" "The Holy City" "Swing a Low Chariot" and "I Pledge Allegiance to My Flag." Now let's see what Miss Winkleman's junior chorus has for new songs, "Hark the Vesper Hymn Stealing" and "Down In the Valley" (an American Mountain . They are also working on the following numbers: "The Cas-Down," by Chantey; "There's No "The Old Chrisholm Trail"

Now we can plainly see why all these students are so happy. We delicacies are all looking forward to hearing these selections

By Jim Connor Last Friday night the Andover team by a score of 44-22. This made Andover's third victory against three defeats.

The local team played a tight two-one-two zone defense out the game and Whitesville was unable to penetrate it thruout most of the game.

In the first quarter Andover took a lead of 12 points to show Whitesville they were'nt going to be doing any slow-poke basketball. At half time it still was Andover leading by 11 points.

When the players came back on the floor after the half time Whitesville showed more fight but the Andover five quickly put the fire out from under them.
