Fields are being prepared to plant melons soon and it is said that they can reach the northern markets earlier than the Georgia grown crop and has been determental to the latter's market potatoes are planted on the same fields, thus producing two crops in one season.

The soil is sandy and needs fertilizer and humus. It pains us to see the way some clear off the land by burning it over. It is f course the easiest way to get rid of heavy grasses, palmetto; insects and they say, snakes too. Seems to us the wild life must suffer badly. This practice isn't quite as common as it seemed to be three years ago when we came down however.

In listening to the "Wild Life" broadcast we learned that the season on protected game is over or about to close in most cases. They hunt deer, mud hen, quail, turkey, doves, squirrel, both gray (called "cat" squirrels) and fox. There is some talk of introducing Those so callgenuine wild pigs. ed now, are escaped domestic ones gone wild. They are surely a sorry prospect for pork too, at down were. We've also tracks of rabbits and skunks and heard a coon one night.

While out for a drive last Sun-As they wheeled and in the sky the sun shone day we noticed a huge flock of white Egrets flying in close forbeautiful sight. A few had alight-

"Slick" Karcanes' boys, the Horn Frogs out-lasted a determined but under-manned club the Tramps by a score of 67-51.

The Tramps led by Carl Fisher's eight points in the first quarter were ahead of the victors 18-10. In the second quarter the winners narrowed the gap to three points The third quarter was disasterous for the Dunmen, they only garnered 11 to Gorsuch and Karcanes'

Miles Gorsuch led his team with 39 points with Karcanes second with 25 points. The rebound work of Baker enabled the scoring to be made possible. Dale Kenyon and Tim Marsh added to their clubs victory with fine pass-
