Jasper-Steuben furnishes dial service to 268 subscribers through a central office at Jasper and magneto service to 77 others in The Public the towns of Greenwood and West Commission today author- Union through a switchboard ownlegany Telephone Com- ed and operated by the Green-nd Jasper-Steuben Tele- wood Telephone Association.

The new rates which it is being allowed to put into effect temporarily are the same as those it sought to introduce on -October and which have also been under suspension and investigation.

Increases which Jasper-Steuben was allowed to put into effect temporarily are: Jasper dial exchange--Residential service, five and ten-party, 50 cents; two party, $1.10; individual line $1.00; Business service — five or tenparty, $1.10; two-party, 65 cents; individual line, 20 cents.

For magneto service through the Greenwood exchange, multiparty residential and business rates will be increased 75 cents monthly, individual line residential service will be increased by $1.00 and individual rates will be increased by $2.50.

The Commission's actions today were predicated on data received at public hearings which indicate that unless the two companies receive some increase they will have insufficient revenues with which to pay interest on outstanding notes and dividends on preferred stock.
