U. S. Mail Carrier

Andover Post Office Employees entertained at dinner at the Dinet in honor of Robert Church who retired as U. S. Mail Carrier on December 31, 1956 after 39 years of service. There were 25 present at the dinner including members of his family and Post Office --workers and husbands and wives. This is the 75th Anniversary for Civil Service thru January, 1957, and a fitting occasion for

value of career employment. Postmaster Mary Burns presented Mr. Church with letter and Certificate a Award from Postmaster General Arthur E. Summerfield and Howard Coonen, Regionald Director as follows: -Mr. Robert E. Church S. Post Office ndover, New York

My Dear Mr. Church: f have been informed that after more than 39 years of Postal Service you have chosen optional retirement from Andover Post Office at the close of business De-

Your duties have been many; some strenuous, hazardous and not always of the most desirable nature. Your Postmaster reports that you started your career beore the days of improved roads or automobiles, you battled the elements in horse drawn vehicles and in the winter you worked twelve hours a day. Many times you walked to deliver the mail as was always your motto that 'The Mail Must Go Through" ways ready to give a helping hand, and your faithful, courteous and honest dealings with everyone has 1955 when you had an automobile accident and was severely injured recovery was considered impossible, but your determination and strong will power over came the difficulty and you returned to work within ten menths Your congenial, cooperative and hardworking qualities have been recognized by your associates and the many postal patrons you have served so well. am very pleased to issue an Honorary Recognition Certificate to be presented to you for your devotion to duty in the course of an honorable career in the United States Postal Service. This letter and citation you will receive conofficial commendation from -the Postmaster General and Regional Office, and each represents a cordial expression of esteem from co-workers in the Postal Service. With wishes for many years of good health and happi-
