Mrs. Yvonne Rowland, Reporter March 5-Thursday and Friday Wesley Merriam and Yvonne Rowland, Roger and Bette were business visitors in Wellsville. plowed through our snow-laden

The ingenuity of Wesley Merriam, who made a crude wooden snowplow for the front of his tractor, and made a track through the field from the barn to the road above, was the reason Roger and Bette Rowland could attend school, as they never would have been a le to get up the road, with drifts over their heads. Mr. Mernam pulled his car through the field and left it on the main road above the barn where he could use it to go to work, however, for one week he went through hipdeep snowdrifts down Larrett Hill to the Wellsville-Andover Road to get a ride to work.
