Resolution Passed By Directors of Citizens National Bank

duly passed at a recent meeting of the Board of Directors of The Citizens National Bank: The Board, in reviewing the death of its late vice president, Andrew D. Fuller, notes the great loss that the bank, the area and his family have sustained. For a half century, he served not only Andover, but the community that Allegany County. A brilliant banker, he was even as much an understanding citizen, one never to refuse the responsibilities that attend such a position. An advisor to the young, the confidant of the more mature—the Village of Andover and its people, and others as well, looked upon him for advice, for guidance and help. Certainly his finest monument is in the minds and affection of those whom he considered his people. The directors of The Citizens National Bank will long remember the all too brief period that he was with us and the counsel and help that he gave us all. The directors of this bank, then, by this memorial, extend their deep sympathy to his family, to the Advisory Board of the Andover
