Builders Or Wreckers

by Joyce Day "It takes a whole brigade of saws; at work to overcome the this is! How much easier it to hammer away our time rather than to "saw" fruitfully. How much easier it is to wreck good character than to build them or to take an indifferent attitude rather than an ambitious one We might be likened to housebuilders, and our lives, houses, which we must plan and build. But our job is one of more importance than that of a housebuilder, for the materials are more precious, and the labor difficult. Ours is a special job. Let's not neglect it.

"I watched them tearing a building down, a gang of men in a busy town. They swung a beam and a whole wall fell. asked the boss—"Are these men skilled, and the kind you'd hire if you were to build?" He over team was beaten by Whiteslaughed and said, "Why, no in--ville by scores of 15-0, 15-3. deed, just common workmen is all I need. They can easily wreck Students Make Up in a day or two. the work it took builders years to do".

So I said to myself, as I went on my way what part in the role of life do I play, am I shaping my deeds to a well-made plan, - - - Patiently-building the best-1 can? Am I a builder whose work will

"Maybe You're Wrong"-but you'd be right to come to the Junior play and find if you have delinquent parents or if you are a delinquent parent. This Row-Peterson play, directed by Mrs. Reba Kessler, will be presented by the Juniors March 28. Tickets are now on sale, only 75c for adults and 50c for students and $1.00 for choice reserved seats. The ushers who will guide you to your seats are Alberta Phelps, Donna Barnhart, Virginia Atwell, and Carol Clark. Richard Lewis is in charge of the stage and Gerald Padden, the lights. Bill Shawi Charles Manroe and Leo Alvord are working on settings and properties. Robert Sackett, Robert McClure, Richard Lewis, John Common, Gerald Padden, Edgar Hoagland, Jim Mulholland, Robert Conde and Bill Shawl are taking care of advertising and tickets. Whitesville Defeats Andover in Volleyball by John Common The defending sectional valley-ball champs defeated the tough Andover squad 15-3 and 15-13. The starting six for Whitesville were: Dick Buckholz, Dick Dibble, Bill Loughlin, Vaughn Buckholz, Ralph Baham and Bob Loughlin. The Andover starting six were: Jim Mulholland, Tom Smith, John Common, Bob Sackett, Leo Burgett and Pat Padden. Others that got into action were Bob McClure Don Harris, Les Stocking, Glenn Thorp and a few others.

The first game was a run-away with the Andover team, a little jittery. The second game was a tough one right down to the last fifteen points with neither team ever getting more than a two point lead.

Coach Stackwick made the comment that this was the best team in five years. Last year the And-
