Thought Take A Grim

Now we are engaged in a great mass of calculations, testing whether that taxpayer or any taxpayer so confused and so improverished can long endure. We are met on form 1040. We have come to dedicate a large portion of our income to a final resting place with those men who here spend their lives that they may spend our money.

It is altogether anguish and torture that we should do this. But in the legal sense we canno evade, we cannot cheat, we cannot underestimate this tax. The collectors, clever and sly, who computed here, have gone far beyond our power to add and subtract.

Our creditors will little note nor these vanished dollars we take in-- and 15-13. crease devotions to the few remaining, that we here highly re-

We are examined, re-examined informed, required, commanded. and compelled, until all we know is that we are supposed to provide an inexhaustible supply of money for every known and unknown need, desire or love of the human race and because we refuse to donate all and go out and beg, borow, or steal the money to give away, we are talked to, talked about, lied about, held up, held -down and robbed until we are just about ruined.
