Juniors Present Play

On Friday, March twentyeighth Andover Central School Junior Class play "Maybe Your Wrong" which was presented with permission of Row Peterson Company, was enthusiasically received Most of the people who attended its performance had nothing but congratulations for the excited actors and actresses.

Great credit for this success belongs to the play's cast, but it also belongs to one who didn't step into the limelight This person is Mrs. James H. Kessler, the producer and director, for without her excellent directing there would have been no play.
