Upstate Christmas Seal Sale Totals $1,656,848

$3.00 year: 7c dony

The Christmas Seal Sale in upstate New York this year totaled $1,656,848. with Allegany County contributing $10,619.93, it was announced this week by Mrs. Ramon F. Reynolds, President of the Health Association of Allegany County, Inc.

Despite the recession, the 1957 total represented a decline of less than one-half of one percent from the previous year, while nation. wide donations to tuberculosis and health associations dropped more than one percent.

"These are highly gratifying results," Mrs. Reynolds said, "be --- ognition that tuberculosis still redisease. Not only will your generous support enable us to forestall a premature let-down in the battle against tuberculosis, but will aid us in our other activities to promote better health for all in Allegany County."

The local community retains 82% of Christmas Seal funds to finance programs of casefinding, rehabilitation, health education school health and promotion of other community services The State Committee receives

12% to pay for varied services to the local association, including visits of field consultants The remaining 6% finances the work of the National Tuberculosis Associ-
