quiet celebration was held with about 15 neighbors and friends who dropped in for ice cream and a piece of birthday cake Friday afternoon.

Welch has lived at the Cook home for the last seven years and previously lived in Pike, near Nunda, with his sister. He came to western New York about 30 years ago from North Adams, Mass., where he had resided about 50 Parents, let's turn out and have years. At North Adams he was commander of the local Knights of Pythias Lodge in 1907-1908. His only living relatives are two nieces and a nephew, Mrs. Clarence Weaver of Alfred, Mrs. Lester Weaver of Kenmore, and Edwin Robinson of Warsaw. He was married and had a daughter but their daughter died while a young girl and his wife died some Welch is an avid reader, likes to smoke a pipe and enjoys walking around the yard, using a cane. Asked what he thinks of President Eisenhower, he thought a minute and then said, "Why, I think he is all right for president—I've always voted Republican." He said he had smoked a pipe since he was 14 years old and added in comment, "It helps me to think better."

Commenting on his longevity, he said, "The thing that makes me live so long is—the fact that through the years when anything went wrong with me, the wife A 2C Delbert Leo Glover who would get after me and make me
