Fishing Derby Big Duccess

entered the Eighth Annual Playground Fishing Derby at the Andover Pond Monday night at 7:00 P. M. This was the most fishers ever attending the Derby. The score was 6 to 2 in favor of the children. This year's total was 28 to 2 in favor of the children.

The Grand Prize for the most fish caught by an individual went to Gary Rosintoski for the fourth year in a row. He caught 17 fish, the most ever caught by an indi-

The prize for the first fish also went to Gary Rosintoski. The prize for the family catching the most fish was the Rosintoski family with 17. The longest fish caught was by Phil Barrett, a 11½ in. Carp. The smallest fish was caught by Bob Cornell, 3½ in.

The most colorful fish was caught by Lynn Sootheran. The fattest fish was caught by Billy Emery. Diane Lehman caught the last fish. The youngest fishers were David Stackwick, Michael Canale and Susan Emery. They were four years old. The oldest fisher was Mr. Bill Kibbler. He is 83 years young. Some of the oddites at the Derby were Billy Emery catching two fish at once, and the various things the fishers hooked onto. Some of these were tin cans, sticks, stones, rag, fishing pole, telephone wires and people. The prize for the best fish story was a tie between Mr. Joseph Canale with his "Wrong Way" story and Gary Rosintoski with his "Lock Lomond" story.

Prizes were T-shirts, milkshakes fishing line, fishing lure, tablet, and eversharp. Also bubble gum and lollipops were given out at the beginning of the contest.
