Nellie served as Lady Assistant Steward and has held all the offices of the Graces. She always was there to help with Grange suppers. I am sure she recalls with pleasure those Annual Harvest Supper (that used to be). They would plan months ahead for the event; the various booths of Fancy Work, Candy, Baked Goods, Vegetables, and were generously contributed by her. Everyone who came for supper stayed for the entertainment and auction which sold to the highest bidder all that had not been sold.

Not many of us stood a chance in taking first prize in the Service and Hospitality Cooking Contests. Even this year she ran off with the first prize in the Grange Cookie Contest.

John Dodge's mother was one of our Charter Members and continued her membership as long as she lived. Her inspiration was no doubt the result of his becoming a Granger fifty years ago.
