words, languages. This was my impression back in 1950 when I was in Europe and can be reemphasized. The American is a pride poor linguist, and many Europeans can not understand why we do not knew another language. One can travel with only a know--ledge of German or French but if he wants to really know the people he must speak their language. Many embarassing amusing incidents are created b cause some Americans do not take the pains to understand even the simple phrases and expressions of another language. The reconstruction of devastated areas of Germany astounds the Americans. I was in Innsrate for Conservation Reserve I arrived at the new station this time I could not believe it was the Edward Seaman Women's same city.
