Manners

by Judie Baker The simple discovery of your two entirely different sets of manners can belike a splash into a cold lake. You have been brought up by your parents to be polite and well mannered. With this "built 'into" your system, it's a shock to realize that to your teenaged friends, good manners sound exaggerated. When are your manners considered to be correct?

Manners sound terrible when they are empty and meaningless. A person who compliments or greets others in entirely the same manner is in bad taste. Today's teenager learns to vary their talk with older people. Good-manners mean putting real feeling into what you say. It means thinking about the person you're talking Manners are good when they fit the occasion. Your best friend would collapse if you addressed him (or her) as you do Mrs. Olderwoman. Older people expect courtesy. Showoff manners are for angels.

Are you so perfect you're terrible? Smart manners are unobtrusive. They don't show constantly. By showing off your manners, you may make others feel awkward. Thoughtful and considerate: got it made. Your manners will always be in good taste.

How many Foys know how to Carol Hoagland, Linda Marvey jitter-bug at A.C.S.? This is a and Patsy Bronson were seen in ping only for a downpour after since I don't know the answer how about a guess?

Andover Scores 3-1 Victory Over A-A by Shulty Mulholland

Last Friday night Andover won one of its many victories to come by a score of 3-1 over last year's champs, Alfred-Almond. In the first quarter of play, Nye from Alfred-Almond scored a penalty kick on "Moose" Common because of a hand ball by Duffy Dixon, but because of the fight and the determination, the Andover squad showed all through the game, they gained the lead by a pass to "Toe" Winchell from "Milly" Woodruff. Then in the second quarter of play "Ripper" Shawl scored a penalty kick making it a score of 3-1.

In the second half of play, Andover pulled its halfbacks back to the goal and a wonderful defensive game was played for the rest of the game without Alfred-Almond scoring a goal.

The starting eleven for Andover were "Ripper" Shawl, "Milly" , "'Madman'' Glover "Toe" Winchell, "Boat" Stocking, "Catman" Lewis, "Ron" Lewis, "Shulty" Mulholland, "Pat" Howland, "Duffy" Dixon and "Moose"

While many of the local girls boy friends have tramped off to college, other A.C.S. girls have aroused the wolf in some man. Take that good old Junior, Lucy, for example. She's got herself a boy friend down to Wellsville, but she's not breathing a word to anyone about him. Come on, kid, tell me who it is, I can keep a secret. Hey, Joanie Pony, I hear you've got a new friend too.
