Waldo E. Rosebush of Spokane, Wash., who was a lumber dealer in Wisconsin and Washington, also a native of Alfred, bequeathed the sum of $8,492.70 in share accounts at the Alfred Mutual Savings and Loan Association, to the village. The will stipulates that the interest from the investment should be paid to the village for the purpose of holding an annual music festival each year. Long-time residents will recall that the Rosebush family at one time owned the village Main Street business block by that name and also in 1933 Mr. Rosebush donated one half of the cost of the Sarah Burdick Rosebush Memorial pipe organ in the Seventh Day Baptist Church in Alfred.
