Whiting-Carter

Miss Elizabeth Ann Carter and Charles Cowles Whiting were united in marriage Saturday, December 22, 1962 at Alumni Memorial Chapel on the Michigan State University Campus, East Lansing, Mich.

The bride is a daughter of Mrs. Richard H. Carter of Lansing, Mich., and the late Richard Carter. The bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Douglas H. Whiting of Andover.

The Rev. George I. Jordan performed the double ring, candlelight service before an altar banked with baskets of large white mums. Mrs. Clarence Heitz was organist and Joseph Walbridge was soloist.

The bride was given in marriage by her brother-in-law, Bruce E. Horn of Greenville, Mich. She wore a floor-length gown of satin and Venetian lace styled with a fitted bodice, portrait neckline, long sleeves and full skirt ending in a chapel train. Her triple bouffant veil fell from a crown of lace edged with aurora borealis teardrops and she carried a cascade bouquet of white roses and baby mums.

Mrs. Bruce Horn, sister of the bride, was matron-of-honor. She wore a princess style gown of red taffeta with a white fur hat and carried a white fur muff.

Mrs. James E. Byington and Miss Patricia Jo Chapman of Lansing, bridesmaids, wore gowns identical to the matron-of-honor's.

Alfred Lynn Whiting of Andover, brother of the bridegroom, was best man. Ushers were Merlyn D. Whiting of Andover, brother of the bridegroom, and William R. Shapton of Holt, Mich.

Mrs. Carter selected a deep blue silk sheath gown, pearl accessories, a white rose hat for her daughter's wedding. The groom's mother selected a green matelasse crepe sheath dress, green hat and brown accessories. Both wore red sweetheart hose corsages.

A reception for 150 guests was held in the chapel parlors.

The bride's table was centered with a five-tiered square wedding cake, decorated with rosettes and four sugar bells on top. Holly tree greens and baby mums completed the table decorations.

Assisting hostesses were the Misses Karen Bashore, Joy Bailey, and Connie Hungerford of Lansing, Mich., and Miss Carol Lynn Castre of Randolph, N. Y.

Freeman-Thies

A lovely candlelight wedding ceremony Saturday evening, December 15, 1962 in the First Congregational Church of Portland united Miss Deanna Marie Thies, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde A. Thies of Westfield and Thomas Martin Freeman of Mayville.

Mr. Freeman is a nephew of Frank Barnhart of Andover.

The double ring ceremony performed by Rev. William W. Blume before an altar appointed with bouquets of white mums and white tapers. The sanctuary was decorated with two white lighted Christmas trees and candelabra. Mrs. James Warnshuis at the organ played a recital of nuptial music.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a floor length gown of white brocaded satin, fashioned with a fitted bodice featuring a bateau neckline and long sleeves ending in points over the hands. Unpressed pleats formed the bouffant skirt with a chapel train which was accented with a bow at the waistline. The gown was made by her mother.

Her short veil of French illusion was attached to a Dior bow of material matching her gown. She carried a cascade bouquet of white roses and holly.

Miss Mary Louise Goss of Dunkirk as maid of honor wore a red velvet cocktail length gown and white fur head circlet. She carried an arrangement of red carnations and sprigs of holly and red velvet ribbons arranged on a white fur muff.

George Stroebel of Mayville served his brother-in-law as best man, and Dale Thies of Westfield, brother of the bride and Donald Blanchard of Mayville, ushered.

Mrs. Thies wore a royal blue dress of brocaded satin with

For traveling the bride wore a turquoise wool dress with pearl accessories.

Following a wedding trip the couple will reside at 1572 Spartan Village on the Michigan State University Campus, where both are students.

The bride, a graduate of Lansing Eastern High School, is a junior at the university. The bridegroom, who was graduated from Andover Central School and State Agricultural and Technical Institute at Alfred, is a senior electrical engineering major.

matching jacket and black accessories. She was favored with a corsage of pink sweetheart roses.

A reception was held in the social rooms of the church immediately following the ceremony. A four-tiered wedding cake, crested with a miniature bride and bridegroom, centering the table, was flanked by lighted white tapers in silver candelabra.

Assisting were Mrs. James Hanson, Mrs. Joseph Hindman, Mrs. Donald Blanchard, Mrs. Ellen Goss, Miss Priscilla Saigeon, Miss Patricia Weise, Miss Jacqueline Reilly, Miss Lorraine Thies and Miss Dorothy Buck.
