THE NEW YEAR

by Lee Kessler

Have you any old habits you'd like to discard? All of us have some, so why don't we try collecting all the old bad habits and chucking them back into a miniature "Pandora's box".

Have you any acrid remarks which have hurt someone, or have you deliberately cheated someone? Have you been exceptionally unpleasant lately? Well, make amends, and contribute one bad deed to our box.

If everyone contributes at least one, we'll have a full stock of evils stored away, never to be used again. Unless, of course, some "Pandora" after the spell of New Year's has worn off, forgets her vow, and reopens the old box. In which case, all meaning of the collection would be lost.

So open up the dusty old attic of a brain and shake out the cobwebs. Store some new and better policies up there to be USED in 1963!

January 1963 Mid-Term Examination Schedule

Lee Kessler Wins Oratorical Contest

In an assembly, held last Friday, the American Legion presented the first prize of the Oratorical Contest to Lee Kessler for her speech, "The Constitution, A Temple of Liberty."

The judges were Mr. Bryon Gillespie of Alfred Ag-Tech, Mr. Fred Gertz and Mr. Ronald Smith of Alfred University.

On Sunday at 2:00 o'clock Lee will go to Wellsville to participate in the County Contest. We all wish her luck.

Purple And White

The standings for the Boys Intramural Leagues are:

Golden Eagles, won 2, lost 1
Celtics, won 2, lost 1
Globetrotters, won 0, lost 2
Navy, won 2, lost 0

In last week's action Coach Bob Cornell's Eagles were downed by the league leading Navy squad 15-0.

Charlie "The Shot" Burdick put on a tremendous one-man effort scoring all 15 points for Navy in the only other action of the day, the Celtics whipped the Globetrotters 8-2.

In the first swimming meet of the season, Wayland just edged our young Panthers 56-39. Several pool records were broken.

Johnson broke the 40 yd. free style mark by 2 seconds, bringing it down from 21 to 19 seconds. Jeff Common broke the 400 yd. free style with a mark of 5:12.8.

Other first place winners were Danny Smith in the 200 yd. free style and Johnson in diving. Our 200 yd. medley relay team also came in first. (Common, Wittie and Rossman). Depth was the factor in this match.

Wayland brought almost twice as many swimmers as our Panthers. This is shown by the fact that Wayland had 6 seconds and 6 third place finishes to our 3 seconds and 3 third place finishes. In first place Wayland had 6 to our 5. The next meet is against Naples, Saturday, January 19th here. Let's all come out to support the team.

Last Friday Belmont defeated the Panther Basketball team 60-43. Ike Conner had 18 points for Andover. Next game is this Saturday at Alfred-Almond. Andover is 1-3 in league play and 2-4 overall.

The boys are in the gym and the girls are in the pool for the next week.

The next wrestling match is at Bath, January 12th at 7:30. In the last match Letchworth defeated the grapplers 48-3.

Junior News

by Vicki Lynch

The Juniors are anxiously awaiting for the arrival of their class rings.

Congratulations go to Jackie Conde, Penny Hames, Donald Harvey, Lee Kessler and Dan Stackwick on the Oratorical Contest.

Senior Interview

At this time I would like you to meet the President of the Senior Class—Frank Edward Coy. Born April 21, 1945, Frank is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Coy of Elm Valley.

Having attended A. C. S. for thirteen years, Frank has been a very active member of the F.F.A. Last year he was treasurer of the Andover Chapter and this year he presides as President. He is also treasurer of the County Chapter.

Last summer, Frank attended an Officer's Training Camp in the Adirondack Mountains. Among his favorites we find: food, steak; color, black; subjects, agriculture and history; pastime, hunting and swimming; sports, soccer and wrestling.

For the last four years, Frank has majored in ag. and business. At the present time, his plans for after graduation are indefinite.

WHAT'S IN A NAME?

Names can be plain, gay, angelic, or even ridiculous. Your name may promise success, or prove to be a handicap. You may like it or despise it. But however you feel about, your name is your lifetime sound-symbol.

Moreover, your name is signed more often than you think. It goes on your school records, in friend's autograph books, on legal papers, birth certificate, and marriage license.

Whether or not you realize it, there's psychology surrounding names. There are also superstitious names:

"Monday's child is fair of face
Tuesday's child is full of grace
Wednesday's child is full of woe,
Thursday's child has far to go,
Saturday's child must work for its living,
Sunday's child is blithe and bonny,
and good and gay."

In the following list are names. See if the meanings fit your name.

ALICE: meaning truth
ANNA, ANNE, ANN: gracious, kindly
BARBARA: sentimental, but reserved

CAROL: "joyous song"
CHARLES: strong, manly
CONSTANCE: Connie, firmness
DEBORAH: "a bee"
DONNA: "lady"

EDWARD: guardian or property
ELIZABETH: consecrated to God

ETHEL: "noble"
GEORGE: the gracious gift of God
JOHN: "God is gracious"
LINDA: "the girl with the pretty legs"

JUDITH: "praised"
MARY: serene, arresting beauty
ROBERT: bright in fame
PATRICIA: feminine of patrick
PETER: "rock"

RICHARD: strong like a ruler, powerful
SANDRA: "a defender of men"
SHIRLEY: "the girl from the meadow"

SUSAN: meaning "lily"
WILLIAM: resolute protector
LEO, LEON: the courage of a lion

MARILYN: tempestuous, a torrent
MARGARET: meaning a pearl
MARTIN: warlike

Dear Gabby,

Well, it looks like most of the high school Andoverites had quite an interesting holiday season.

There was a party at Bill E. New Year's Eve. Those there Jean H., Bill F. and Bonnie, Vicki and Don and Bill C. and Jeannie M.

The same night at another party were Don and Diane, Jackie and A. C. and Bob and Bobbie and many others.

Seems like Charlie, Jim G., and a certain college sophomore, E. G., had a party of their own at a frat house in Alfred. Have fun boys? By the way, who were those girls that called you? ? ?

Janet, Judy, and Janis had a hilarious time baby-sitting N. Y. E. Sunday night before N. Y. E.

Carol had a party with Lloyd, Eddie, Jim, Doug, Charise and Jean, Janet and Jim, Judy, Janis, Lynn and Pete causing a lot of commotion.

Those seen bowling last Sunday afternoon were Jane Penny, Mary Ann and D. P., Doug and Bill C.

The "Rec." was composed of mostly Andover "footsteppers", Saturday night. Those included were Jim G., who seemed to be monopolized by M. C., Doug, Bill F., Bonnie, Judy, Janis, Mary Ann, Lynn, Bill C., Jim C. Charlie Jean, Vicki, Janet and others.

Looks like the "Pond" has been the scene of many blooming romances. How 'bout that Bob and Bobbie, Vicki and Jim, and Bill and Bonnie? ? ?

Tot Spot

Kindergarten, Mrs. Corwin—Jeffrey Briggs and Charles Dougherty have their fifth birthdays this week.

Jeffrey's on the 8th and Charles on the 9th. Billy Cornell was in the hospital two days last week. We are glad to have him back in school this week.

Sunday Terri Smith went to visit her grandmother who lives in Pennsylvania. Debra Baker had Sunday evening lunch in Wellsville. Ronald Nichols was also in Wellsville Sunday evening. Kelly Shaw has a new black puppy. Her name is Boots. Daniel Burgett visited his cousin, Charles Gillyly in Belmont Sunday.

Michael Gavin's father has gone to Buffalo to work this week. He will be home for the week-end. We have been making snowmen and snowflakes in our room to decorate our bulletin boards. Last week the children brought their Christmas toys to school to show their classmates. We enjoyed the new dolls, trucks, tractors and many other toys that were brought.

Kindergarten, Mrs. Riggs—We have no January birthdays. William Hulse, Jr., has moved and so didn't return to be in our group after Christmas. Susan Manroe has moved to another house in Andover. Shawn McCormick visited his cousin, Chris Wahl during vacation. Martin Cornish stayed all night with his Grandmother Cornish this week-end. Marsha Baker attended a wedding in Olean during vacation. Chris Wahl visited his cousin, Cecilia Owen during vacation. Chris Wahl and Ricky Rouse went sliding this week-end. Cecilia Gavin went coasting with her sister. Susan Manroe's dog got sick and died. Everyone reported that they had a fine Christmas. Most of the children brought at least one of their favorite toys to show the others last week. Our room looked like a toy store with new dolls, trucks, and games to try. "We Wish You A Happy New Year."

Marty Cornish's Uncle Bob was home on leave from the service during vacation. Vicki Westbrook's grandmother visited from Corning over Christmas. Ricky Hancock and Vicki Westbrook attended Jeffrey Briggs' 5th birthday party.

Grade One, Mrs. Connor—Keith Shaw was seven years old on January seventh. He brought candy bars for the children. Deborah Hulse has moved to another school. We shall miss her from our group. Elaine Bronson enjoyed skating at the Pond Sunday with Susan Church. Kim Baker visited at the Maloney home. Camilla Cornish was an overnight guest at her Grandmother Cornish's home. Cindy Barden and Carol Weber went ice skating. Roger Ford entertained guests from Scio. Dennis Ordway visited his Grandmother Witter. Kim Westbrook went to Jeffrey Briggs' birthday party. Betty Jackson made a birthday cake for her mother. Marcella Black went to Scio. Kim Baker treated her class mates to candy bars Monday. Her birthday was December 24th.

Grade One, Mrs. Tompkins—Rose Billings father is on the sick list. Anna Dunham has a new turtle; Carol Clark a new bull calf; Carol Roehse has two new calves and Allison Davis has a new puppy. Carol Weber stayed overnight Saturday with Cindy Barden. Gregg Rossman had friends at his home Sunday night for Chili, Cake and Movies. Mike Dibble visited Grade Two, Miss Church—We all enjoyed Christmas and received many nice gifts. We each brought a gift for Show and Tell Time. Susan Burgett and David Matison have read over 50 books in our outside reading program. David Dodge and Barbara Leonard have read over 25 books but less than 50. The following have read between 15 and 25 books: Connie Baker, Nona Barnes, Brian Cannon, Robert Jackson, Bonnie Patry and Cindy Taylor. The Reading Race is led by the Atlas Team by 14 points in our 2nd orbit around the earth. We are glad to have Cindy Taylor and Yvonne Dunham back this week from Christmas vacation. They have been sick.

Grade Two, Mrs. Peckham—Susan Church was seven on January 6th. She treated our class to candy. Elsie Hess visited at Lancaster, Pa., over Christmas vacation. Several children in our room received ice skates for Christmas, and have enjoyed skating on the Pond. Susan Church has a new parakeet. Eileen Atwell spent Friday and Saturday nights at the home of Christine Joyce.

Grade Three, Mrs. Fellenz—Brenda Jackson went skiing at her grandmother's on Sunday. Friday night Jeanne Atwell stayed overnight with her cousin. Herman Rouse went shopping in Wellsville on Friday night. Ruth Tuttle had a good time visiting Josephine Lynch on Saturday. Jess Grossman made a snow fort Saturday. Julie Brown went sliding with Kim Richardson on Saturday. Reelene Lehman played at Ormsby's on Saturday. Karen Davis went to Hornett Saturday, to take her Daddy to the train. John Howland brought some shells and a coconut back from Florida to show us.

Grade Three, Mrs. Roll—Barbara Koman had Sunday dinner with Susan Church. Eileen Snyder had supper with her grandparents. Shirley Lewis went shopping Friday night in Wellsville. She entertained Charlene McCormick on Saturday. Brenda Prescott entertained her cousin from
