Allegany County Civil Defense

Robert L. Coulter, Director

Further steps in the cooperative efforts between the New York Telephone Company and the county Civil Defense Office were taken at a recent meeting when Clarence Klumpp, Civil Defense Coordinator, Charles Field, Security Officer and Wesley Vanderhorst, District Mgr., of the New York Telephone Company met with County Director Robert L. Coulter.

The county Civil Defense Office is establishing procedures to assist the Telephone Company personnel in the continuation of their duties to maintain service for priority uses and to provide as much public service as is possible.

Mr. Coulter in commenting on this said "In any emergency situation the Telephone Company is called on for unusual service and in a war-emergency the Telephone Communications system would have many emergency duties to perform and the public should remember that telephoning should be used only for extreme emergency". Mr. Coulter also said "The cooperation rendered the local Civil Defense organization by the Telephone Company is excellent and we feel that our communication situation has materially improved."

Scout-O-Rama To Be Held In Olean

"Strengthen America Through Scouting" will be the theme of the Seneca Council Boy Scout Council's 1963 Scout-O-Rama show on May 10-11. The event will be held at the Olean Armory.

A record number of Cub Packs, Troops and Explorer units in Cattaraugus and Allegany Counties are expected to have action-display booths in the show, according to Chester R. Halgas of Olean, Scout-O-Rama chairman. The real purpose of the show, Mr. Halgas said, is to inform the public how Scouting builds character.

All of the Council's 100 units will be invited to have exhibits that will depict some phase of the Scouting program. Nearly fifty booths were opened to the public in a similar show two years ago.

The booth will be "dynamic" according to Mr. Halgas. That is, they will feature the Scouting program in "motion", as opposed to a static display.

Scouts in the two counties will be asked to sell tickets, which are expected to be available about one month before the show opens.

Members of the Scout-O-Rama planning committee include James Norton and Frederick Ahrens of Salamanca, and James Chisholm of Olean. The secretary-advisor is A. Robert Maurice of Kill Buck.
