Hervey Thorne was taken ill Wednesday at the H. H. Williams Store and taken to the Burgess home on Maple Street for care.

Mr. and Mrs. Bruce McGill and family moved February 1st to their new home at Wayland, Mass. where Mr. McGill will assume his new duties as Superintendent of Schools. A native of Andover, and son of Ray and the late Katherine McGill of Olean, Mr. McGill is a graduate of Alfred University and has held a number of teaching and administrative posts in education before accepting this new position.

The second Linford Potter farm well in the Town of Independence went into the record as a flowing well, at the deeper level at which it was shot Wednesday at 2 o'clock. The Thursday a. m. word was that it went far beyond all hopes. Oil overflowed the mast from the 240-ft. nitro shot. Operations went into saving the oil, and by 6 to 7 a. m., the salvage was 30 barrels. The well was still flowing.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Marsh of Elm Street were honored at a birthday dinner, Thursday evening at the home of Miss Lena Mae Walker of Wellsville. The occasion being the birthday anniversary of Mrs. Marsh.

The L. L. Bridge Club was entertained at the home of Mrs. John Lever, Dyke St., Thursday evening. Honors were presented to Mrs. John Nobles, Mrs. Avery Mead and Mrs. Helen Boyd.

Mrs. Glenn Covil of East Greenwood St., who had the misfortune to fall in her home in early December and fractured her ankle, has had the cast removed and is able to get around with the aid of a cane.

Dawn Burdick and Raymond Mead of Andover, and Marcia Sawdey of Cuba attended the Winter Conference for Young Cooperatives of the Dairymen's League in Watkins Glen the week-end of February 1, 2 and 3. This was a leadership training school with the purpose to learn more about the Young Cooperators and the Dairymen's League. Dawn is a member of the Young Coop., Executive Committee representing the Buffalo Division Office of the Dairymen's League.

A gas explosion destroyed the trailer and about 80 bags of potatoes belonging to Lee Schulthies of Arkport, January 31st. The trailer had been parked in the Goodwin Garage at Almond to keep the potatoes from freezing. A bottled gas leak in the trailer's heating unit was blamed for the explosion. The sides of the garage were pushed out of shape and windows broken.
