Cub News

Monday night the Junior High Basketball League had the closest and most exciting games of the season. The first game between the Panthers and the Hawks went into over-time with the Panthers winning by a score of 17 to 14. Tom Joyce and Eddie Sackett led the Panther scoring with 7 and 6 points and Charlie Joyce led the Hawks scoring with 6 points.

In the second game between the Warriors and the Cubs, the score was tied up at 24 to 24, and in the last seconds of play Tom Ordiway was fouled. He made the foul shot to give the Cubs the win. Dave Vickers and Alvord led the Warrior scoring with 11 and 8 points and Hames led the Cub scoring with 11 points.

Next week the teams will play off for the league championship.

Senior Interview

Jane Louise Joyce, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leo T. Joyce of Center Street, was born September 21, 1944 in Hornell. She has four brothers, Leo, Gerald, Jack and Tom, and one sister, Agnes.

Throughout high school—Jane has majored in homemaking and business. She has also participated in several activities. These are: Chorus, three years; Camera Club, four years; Library Council, three years; G.A.A., two years; F.H.A., four years, one of which she was secretary. Jane played the part of Bonita, a student, in the junior play and Dr. Stack, in the senior play. She has also been a member of the C.Y.O. for three years. Jane was secretary of her Junior Class

Jane's favorites include: food, Italian foods; color, blue; subject, bookkeeping; pastime, talking; sport, basketball and bowling; and saying, "Oh, that's nice". Her philosophy is the "Golden Rule" and her pet peeve is "people who think that they're better than anyone else."

After graduation, Jane plans to study Business in Olean or Rochester.

Charles Dougherty, Larry Tidd and Kevin MacCrea back in school. They were ill last week. Douglas Snyder was in Hornell Sunday. Kelly Shaw visited his grandmother, Sunday. Kevin MacCrea shopped in Hornell Saturday. Daniel Burgett had visited his Grandmother Burgett Sunday. He had supper at her house. Craig Dodge skated on the ice near his home. Mrs. Vars substituted for Mrs. Corwin for three days.

Kindergarten, Mrs. Riggs — Marty Cornish went to see his Grandmother Cornish. Cecilia Gavin went to her cousin, Chris Wick's house to slide and ski. Ricky Hancock went with his family to see his grandparents in Jamestown. They stayed over Saturday night. Beth Anne Seifert's grandmother came from Elmira. They went to see their other grandmother also. Tom Price skied this week-end. Vicky Bird has twin lambs on her farm. Steven Scott's Butch, got hit by a car. We are sorry. Judy Perry has a new baby sister. Her name is Charlene Sue Perry. We have a new boy in our room. His name is Jeffrey Myers and he lives on Barney St Annex. Marsha Baker's other Grandmother is visiting her Grandma Baker.

Kindergarten: Mrs. Connor — Mark Snyder went to Hornell. George Burger enjoyed skiing over the week-end. He had guests from Hornell and Buffalo. Camilla Cornish visited her grandparents in Independence. Sue Herr had guests for dinner Sunday. Roged Ford was in Buffalo. Clady Barden was at Sherry Weber's home in Wellsville. Kim Baker's Aunt Dorothy from Arkport was her guest. Chris Mattison was at the Burdick home. Harriet McCormick and Eugenia visited at Grandmother McCormick's home. Rory MacCrea was at the Clarke home in Independence. Keith Shaw stayed overnight at Bath. Rosie Clark was in Hornell. Betty and James Jackson were in Greenwood. Brian Lynch, Elaine Bronson, Rory MacCrea, and Dennis Ordiway have returned to school after several days absence due to illness. Group one has completed "Fun With Our Friends". The children begin subtraction in numbers this week. Grade Two, Mrs. Peckham — Elsie Hess visited friends in Greenwood Sunday. Eileen Atwell visited at her Uncle Paul Hyland's home on Sunday. Cheryl Joyce was bowling Sunday. Julie Baker has a Chick-U-Bator and is making plans to hatch three eggs. Twin calves were born at Elsie Hess' farm on Tuesday. We have started our jelly bean contest in spelling. It will end at Easter time with a prize for the child with the most jelly beans. Grade Two, Miss Church—We are glad to have Barbara Leonard, Bohny Perry and Richard Tidd back after a week's illness. The following people have read 50 or more books in our outside reading program: Susan Burgett, David Dodge, Barbara Leonard and David Matison. Nona Barnes, Brian Cannon and Mary Gavin have read 25 or more books, but less than 50 and so have earned their reading certificates and prizes. We have begun cursive writing. Grade Three, Mrs. Wilcox — Josephine Lynch went to Ellicottville Saturday to watch skiing. Billy Geer visited his aunt and uncle in Wellsville Sunday where he saw "Lassie" in color. Josephine Lynch's father went to Chicago on Wednesday. He had to catch his train at Olean rather than at Wellsville, because of the accident in Belfast Sunday. Danny Dodge visited cousins in Portville. Jesse (Hi Herald Continued on Page 7)
