Mr. and Mrs. Charles G. Gath are observing their 57th wedding anniversary today, March 21st.

Mrs. I. H. Gilfillan received word this week of the promotion of Allen E. Edwards of Niagara Falls to the rank of Major. Mrs. Edwards is a niece of Mrs. Gilfillan.

Mrs. Avery Mead entertained the L. L. Bridge Club at her home on Pleasant Ave., Monday evening. A 7:30 dessert was served by the hostess followed by bridge with honors being presented to Mrs. Minnie O'Connell, Mrs. E. J. Allen, Mrs. Fay Boyd. The guest prize was awarded to Mrs. Lynn Trowbridge.

Dianne Brown, Janet Brown, Beverly Clark and Debra Collins went on the 25-mile hike to Belmont with the Wellsville group Sunday.

The requirement that sheep from New York State be dipped in a pesticide solution before moving to another state has been lifted. State Agriculture Commissioner Don J. Wickham said that this restriction and others pertaining to movements of sheep within the State were removed upon the federal declaration that New York is now a scabies-free State.

G. H. Wellington, of the Animal Husbandry Department at Cornell will be the featured speaker at the Annual 4-H Dairy and Livestock Dinner, April 6th, at Angelica Central School.

Paul Almeter, Allegany County farmer of West Almond and Leslie Whitney, Work Unit Conservationist of Belmont attended a meeting held in the Cattaraugus County Farm and Home Center at Ellicottville. The meeting was to formulate cost and return figures which will be used as a guide. This guide should help farmers in Allegany County in determining what may be expected in returns from different type soils in Allegany County under varied conservation and management practices.
