Belated Christmas Cards Delivered This Week

On December 21st Train No. 7 running late and at a terrific speed, threw the pouch of mail. It struck the corner of the old depot and burst open.

Veronica Gavin, Mail Messenger, gathered all she could find and brought it to the Post Office none other than newspapers were badly damaged.

Evidently one tie of Alfred, N. Y., mail blew a distance—and was covered with snow.

This week she found the tie, wet, but legible after its winter nap.

Red Cross Blood Bank Nets 47 Pints

Forty-seven pints of blood were donated at the Blood Bank on Monday. There were 17 other prospective donors, who were rejected because of colds, flu, having given too recently, etc.

Mr. Bronson would like to thank all donors and other people who helped in any way to make this Blood Bank a success.

This is a wonderful community project and takes cooperation of a great many people to be a success. Besides the 47 donors and 17 prospective donors, there were about forty other people who helped in various ways. This included five nurses, eight people to work in the canteen, sixteen people to bake and donate cookies, eight boys to help unload and load the truck and of course the cooperation of Mr. Kessler and the school custodian and cafeteria staff.
