Class Of 1964 To Present Annual Play

"THE DIVINE FLORA" is a three act comedy which is full of laughter, yet portrays the emotional adventure of Etta Dean, a shy awkward motherless girl of sixteen. She has been brought up so strictly by her grandmother, that she is known to the high school wolf pack as Little Miss Prune-Puss. Two of the boys in the play are Randy Pryor and "Buzz" Rafferty. Their mutual ambition is to become the greatest advertising men in the world. It's "poor Etta," when these two go-getters start proving their ability by merchandizing her as The Divine Flora. What happens to the boys themselves, to their luckless parents and to the equally unfortunate radio crooner who becomes involved in their affairs, fills three merry acts and culminates in a poignant little scene which sends the audience home happy.

Reserve Friday evening, April 26th 8:00 p.m. at A.C.S. Auditorium.
