Henry W. Snyder

Henry W. Snyder, 82, of Mainville, Rd., Belmont, died early Monday, April 15, 1963 at the Jones Memorial Hospital. A retired farmer, he had resided in this area since 1916 when he moved to Belmont from Andover.

Born Sept. 17, 1880, in the Town of Hartsville, he was the son of Henry and Mary E. Kimball Snyder. He was married Jan. 27, 1906, to Eva Clair who died July 4, 1961.

Surviving are one daughter, Mrs. Enid Farwell of Belmont; two sons, Richard H. of Prospect Park, Pa., and Robert C. of Belmont; seven grandchildren and nine great-grandchildren.

Mr. Snyder was a member of the Presbyterian Church of Belmont.

Funeral services were held Wednesday afternoon at the Frederick

C. Mulholland Funeral Home, in Wellsville. Burial at the convenience of the family will be at Forest Hill Cemetery, Belmont.

Appreciation

I wish to thank all my kind friends, neighbors, relatives, Baptist Church and Sunday School and the Woman's Relief Corp No. 155 for the lovely cards I received while a patient in the Jones Memorial Hospital, also Rev. Holmes for his daily visitations which were all greatly appreciated.
