Gee-Reisman

Baskets of white snapdragons and mums decorated the altar of the Christian Temple Saturday, March 30, for the marriage of Miss Alecia Dorothy Reisman and David L. Gee.

Nuptial vows were pledged before the Rev. Phillip Hollebeck in a double-ring ceremony at 3 p. m.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Maude Reisman of Andover and the late Leonard Reisman. The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Wilford Gee of Ellis Heights.

For her wedding, the bride selected a street-length white taffeta, off-the-shoulder, sleeveless gown. A rhinestone tiara with shoulder-length veil and elbow length white gloves completed her ensemble. She carried a white Bible covered with a pink and white orchid surrounded by white carnations and lilies of the valley and wore a cross centered with a single diamond, a gift from the groom.

Miss Sharon Thorp of Andover acted as maid of honor wearing a deep pink street-length gown complemented by a pink rhinestone crown with face veil. She carried a colonial bouquet of pink roses.

Daniel Gee served as best man. For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Reisman chose a tangerine and brown crepe dress with beige accessories and a corsage of white carnations. The groom's mother wore a beige linen suit accented with blue and beige accessories and a corsage of pink carnations.

White candles, pompoms and crystal and silver service decorated the bride's table for a buffet luncheon served at the home of the groom's parents for the immediate family.

Following a wedding trip to Lake Placid, the couple will reside with the bride's mother. For traveling the bride wore a red suit trimmed with black accessories.

The bride attended Andover Central School and will continue working at the Andover Diner. The groom graduated from Wellsville Central School and Alfred Tech. He is employed in the Engineering Department of Air Preheater.
