Mother-Daughter Banquet Is Socially Successful

Over one hundred mothers, daughters and guests were present at the Annual Mother-Daughter Banquet which was held at the Blessed Sacrament Hall Tuesday evening. A delicious turkey dinner was prepared and served by the Ladies of the Grange. The dining room was attractively arranged with the tables enhanced by spring floral centerpieces and white candles.

After the invocation by Father Shea the group was welcomed by Mrs. Robert Smith, President of the Altar Society and who introduced Mrs. Charity McCormick who graciously acted as Toastmistress for the occasion.

A toast to the mothers was given by Mary Theresa Howland and Mrs. Charles Joyce responded with a toast to the daughters. The gathering was musically entertained by a trumpet trio and vocal selections under the direction of Mrs. June Rollins, music instructor at Greenwood Central School. The talent included the Misses Mary Jo McCormick, Cheryl Hussey, Donna Wallace and Elsie Koehler.

Awards were presented to the oldest mother present, Mrs. Clara Lynch; the youngest mother present, Mrs. Martin Smith; the grandmother with the youngest grandchild, Mrs. Monica Connor; the youngest daughter present, Penny Dixon and to the mother attending from the farthest distance, Mrs. Marie Petermann of Corning.

Rev. Robert W. Vogt, pastor of St. Mary's Church, Canaseraga was the guest speaker of the evening who gave an inspiring talk on "Remembering Mother."

The program concluded with Benediction by Rev. John Shea.

Work, Yes; but think, too.
