

GREENWOOD NEWS

Grace Young, Reporter

Rural Life Sunday was observed by a youth service at the Methodist Church Sunday morning. Jefferson Brewster, son of Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Brewster of West Greenwood was the guest speaker on the topic, "Inner Peace". He is a senior at Greenwood Central School, and a member of the Andover Christian Missionary Alliance Church. Jeff plans to attend a church school at Nyack, N. Y. to train for the ministry this fall. Misses Donna Wallace and Cheryl Hussey sang the Lord's Prayer, Starla Jackson and Bobbi Myers sang, "It Is No Secret" also songs by the Christian Aires, a group of eight youths who have visited other churches to sing.

The Annual Alumni Dinner was held at G. C. S., Saturday night with 95 in attendance. Officers in charge were: President, Thomas Harkenrider; Vice President, Stanley Murray; Secretary, Kathleen Murray and Treasurer, Lillian Russo. The Association elected Lee Osmin of Hornell Treasurer for 1964. Harkenrider will retire and others move up in office, making Stanley Murray President for 1964. It is planned to hold a dance in October. Leon McNeill was Toastmaster and Roger Street introduced the Seniors. Principal Wesley Tennant introduced the Faculty and Board of Education. Mrs. Jennie White an alumni who is retiring from G. C. S., Faulty, after 42 years teaching service, was honored by a gift from the alumni. Talks in recognition of her long service were given by McNeill, Tennant, Dist. Supt., Virgil Hussey and Harkenrider. The dinner was served by Scout Mothers, chairman, Mary Murren. Scouts helped wait on table and entertained with skits.

The WSCS of the Methodist Church reelected the following officers at the May Meeting at the home of Mrs. Joseph White Thursday afternoon: President, Grace Young; Vice President and Promotion, Ann Stephens; Secretary and Literature and Publication, Janet Jackson; Treasurer, Marian Hussey; Spiritual Life Secretary, Geraldine Lamphier; Missionary Education and Supply, Celia Lamphier; Christian Social Relations, Jeanne Cornell; Youth and Children's Work, Harriet Redmond; Local Activities, Freda Stephens. The Society voted to pay the registration of youth who go to Silver Lake from the church. The last meeting of the season will be a picnic the second week of June at the home of Mrs. Walter Jackson. The devotions were given by Mrs. Freda Stephens and the program by Mrs. Blanche Goodno.

The Official Board met at the Methodist Church Tuesday night with the Rev. Robert Myers.

The Reorganized Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints welcomed a guest speaker Sunday morning. Elder James Weaver and family of Williamsville were guests. The Pastor, Elder Carol Bassett opened the service and Weaver delivered the message. The congregation enjoyed a turken dinner in the new dining room.

There was a good attendance for the Masonic Talent Contest at the central school Monday night. The Master of Ceremonies was Hayden Cook. A small admission charge was used for the prize money. There were two sections according to age with 4 winners in each. Ages 5-11 had seven numbers. First winners were duet Starla Jackson and Bobbi Myers accompanied by Rev. Robert Myers; second, vocal duet, Steve Harkenrider and Tom York; third, trombone solo by Kaye Tennant and fourth was six Kindergarten Twisters.

The age group over 12 gave 12 numbers: 1st prize won by Trumpet Trio, Elsie Koehler, Cheryl Hussey and Donna Wallace; 2nd by Chardettes and Junior Girls Chorus; 3rd was the Color Guard routine by four girls and 4th prize to Junior Trumpet Trio, Kathy Koehler, Alicia Marie Haaback and Flo Nye.
