Mrs. Frances Cole of the Rexville Road, widow of Frank Cole, died Wednesday at the Jones Memorial Hospital in Wellsville where she had been a patient for three weeks. She was 78 years old, a native of Jasper, and has lived most of her life in the Rexville area. She was survived by four daughters: Mrs. Nina Burdick of Rexville, Mrs. James Martin of Honeoye Falls, Mrs. Harold Westbrook of Nunda, Mrs. Milo Moland of Alma; six sons, S. J. McCormick of Hornell, Ernest Cole of Greenwood, David and Paul Cole of Rexville, Clifford Cole of Wellsville, Cornelius Cole of Lawndale, Calif. two step-sons, Lee Cole of Almond Franklin Cole of Michigan; two step-daughters, Mrs. Margaret Clark and Mrs. Frances Buxton of Rochester; three brothers, Floyd and William Barnes of Hornell and Ivan Barnes of Rixford, Pa.; one sister, Mrs. Mae Spencer of Live Oak, Florida; 36 grandchildren and six great grandchildren. A prayer service was held at the Smith Funeral Home in Canisteo Saturday morning followed by a Requiem High Mass at St. Joachim's Church in Canisteo. Burial was in Bennetts Creek Cemetery. The family stopped later at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Cole.

Greenwood Central School Band tied with Arkport for first place in Class D Schools Saturday at the Pomona Grange Dairy Parade in Bath. The band marched from the Methodist Church to the Christian Hollow Road and up to the school grounds by the back road when they returned home. Miss Gloria Wallace, Drum Major carried the trophy to display it. The band had a rehearsal in the Memorial Day parade. Saturday, June 8, the band goes to Gorham to parade and be judged on uniforms and appearance.

Among the 30 Dairy Sweethearts in the parade were: Miss Alexis Brown, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alex Brown, representing Greenwood Central School and Miss Susan Edwards, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Edwards, representing West Greenwood Grange.

Mr. and Mrs. James Ahearn recently bought the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harlan Waters and moved their family Saturday from the apartment in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Karl Crittenden.

Mr. and Mrs. Harlan Waters have bought a trailer home and installed it on their lower lot on the Fenton Avenue Road. Mrs. Waters runs Christine's Beauty Shop in her front room and has retained the use of the room until new quarters are available. She has made arrangements for space in the front of the stock room of Kernan's Grocery owned by Mr. and Mrs. Clair Kernan. The shop entrance will be from the apartment door between the two stores. Saturday Mahlon Kernan cut a doorway into the side of the room and installed a door.

Douglas Wyant, grandson of Francis Acker, graduated from the Vero Beach High School in Florida May 29. His mother, Mrs. Harley Wyant wrote her father, that Douglas was one of the top ten in the Class of 209. He also received an award in Spanish as one of the top four. The Rotary Award of a $50 Bond and a $500 Scholarship to the college of his choice from the Student Council to be sent direct to the college. Douglas plans to work at a resort in Binghamton, N. Y. this summer. He will drive North and bring his brother, Daniel to spend the summer with his grandfather.

The Young Hickory Baptist Church has set several evergreen trees around the church as memorials. One was set as a memorial to Rev. and Mrs. M. P. Wheeler, former pastor and his wife. A dedication service was held Sunday, June 2. Mrs. Marion Wheeler attended and was a dinner guest of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Plaisted.
