Mr. and Mrs. Paul Stettenbenz

Miss Carolyn Marie Cornell became the bride of Paul Charles Stettenbenz, Saturday morning, June 8, 1963 at the Blessed Sacrament Church in Andover.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Cornell, Andover and the bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Mary Stettenbenz and the late Mr. Stettenbenz of Wellsville.

The Rev. John R. Shea performed the double-ring ceremony before an altar of white mums. Miss Anna Fisher supplied the organ music.

Given in marriage by her father the bride wore a white ballerina-length dress of lace over taffeta. A shoulder-length veil fell from her tiara and she carried a white Bible adorned with orchids.

Miss Nancy Monroe, maid-of-honor, wore a pink tulle gown with a matching headpiece. She carried a bouquet of yellow and white spider mums.

Miss Marilyn Cornell was bridesmaid for her sister's wedding. She wore a dress of rose nylon over taffeta, and carried a bouquet of pink, white and green carnations.

Attired in a dress of yellow nylon over taffeta, Miss Susan Monroe was flower girl. She carried a basket of yellow, white and green mums. Billy Cornell, brother of the bride was ring bearer.

Ralph Stettenbenz acted as best man for his brother. Ushers were Martin Cornell and Richard Davis, both uncles of the bride from Hornell.

The Bob Brown Trio entertained at a reception at the American Legion. Guest were present from Syracuse, Buffalo, Wellsville, Hornell, Genesee, Olean, Bolivar, Jordan and Florida.

For traveling on a wedding trip to the Adirondack Mountains the bride chose a black and white striped suit with white accessories.

The bride is a graduate of Andover Central School and attended St. Francis School of practical nursing. The groom graduated from Wellsville High School, Rochester Institute of Technology, and St. Bonaventure University. He presently is employed by the Air Preheater.

Pre-nuptial events included a shower given by Mrs. Ralph Maples and Miss Marjorie Bledsoe.

The couple will reside on Maple Ave., in Wellsville.
