Junior Red Cross News

The Andover Chapter of the America Junior Red Cross held a work session in the school cafeteria on Tuesday, May 29, 1963, sixth period. At this work session, the members completed the booklets for the Jones Memorial Hospital Children's Ward. The booklets made are as follows:

- 4—"Good Things"
 - 14—"Name It"
 - 50—"What Color Is It?"
- We hope that they will give the children enjoyment in the long hours at the hospital.

The Andover Junior Red Cross is sending an Andover-School Student, Patricia Gath, to the college at Oxford, Ohio for one week this summer. She will study first aid at a Red Cross demonstration. We wish Pat the best of luck and a real good time in Oxford.

The eighth grade members of the Junior Red Cross are beginning, next year, a new organization for High School. It will be called the High School Junior Red Cross Council. In the organization, members will study first aid, and other more advanced projects. We are hoping that it will be a success. Officers for the organization were elected on Friday, June 7, 1963. They are as follows:

President, Gail Bronson

Senior Interviews

This week, we are interviewing Miss Sharon Marie Thorp, a student at A.C.S. for twelve years. She resides with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Donald G. Thorp, at 20 Chestnut St., Andover. Four of her sisters, Sandra, Diana, Maureen and Noreen, live at home while two sisters, Mrs. Thomas Lynch and Mrs. Frederick Dannheim are married. She also has three brothers: Donald, Glenn and David.

Sharon has been active in chorus, Library Council, Girl's Athletic Association and band. She was the student council representative of the Future Homemakers of America.

Her major is Business and Homemaking with homemaking as her favorite subject. She enjoys eating spaghetti and spends her spare time writing letters. Her pet peeve is being told what to do. Blue is her favorite color and her favorite saying "Whew Whew!"
