

Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Centore

Miss Sandra Jean Skuse, a former resident of Andover and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn P. Skuse, of 7189 East Dominic Street, Mounted Route, Rome was united in marriage to Anthony Centore, son of Mr. and Mrs. Armond Centore of 7125 Wright Drive, Mounted Route, Rome. The nuptial mass was performed at 10:00 A. M., by the Rev. Francis S. Holcinski at the Transfiguration of Our Lord Church in Rome on Saturday, June 8, 1963.

The church was decorated with baskets of white gladioli, white carnations and stephanitis complemented by candelabra. Flowers of the attendants provided the color accent for the all-white wedding. Organ music was furnished by Leo Senus of Rome.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, chose a floor-length gown of French Chantilly lace, fashioned with a scalloped Sabrina neckline accented with iridescents and pearls, long tapered sleeves and a basque bodice with a drop-scoop waistline edged with lace cabbage roses. Her bouffant skirt was scallop-edged and fell into a chapel train. Her Quene's crown of iridescents and pearls held in place a fingertip bouffant veil of silk illusion. She carried a prayer book, centered with a detachable corsage of red roses and streamers of white roses. Her necklace was a diamond cross, gift of the bridegroom.

Miss Barbara Centore, sister of the groom, was the maid-of-honor. Her white ballerina-length gown of nylon organza was fashioned with a belted bodice of embroidered nylon organza with narrow straps and matching state cape. Her skirt was bouffant with wide hemline train and she wore a matching open pillbox hat with a face veil of silk illusion. She carried a floral spray of aqua carnations and ivy.

Miss Brenda Meissner of Wellsville, cousin of the bride and Miss Patricia Kozlowski of Lowell, cousin of the groom, were bridesmaids. They were attired in white gowns identical to the maid-of-honor's. They carried floral sprays of peppermint carnations and ivy and wore rhinestone cross necklaces, gifts of the bride.

The groom's cousin, Miss Cathy Lubeck of Rome was the flower girl. She wore a white gown of nylon organza with fitted bodice and full skirt. Her headpiece was an open pillbox hat with a face veil. She carried a basket of pastel roses and carnations.

Joseph Lubeck of Rome served as his cousin's best man and usher. He was Tom Hubal of Rome and Dennis Clarke of Wellsville, cousin of the bride.

A sheathgown of turquoise lace and organza was worn by Mrs. Skuse for her daughter's wedding. She chose beige accessories. The mother of the bridegroom wore a turquoise silk two-piece suit with white accessories. Both mothers had redrose corsages.

Following the ceremony a wedding breakfast was held at the home of the groom's parents. An evening reception and buffet supper at the Polish Home in Rome was attended by 250 guests. The bridal table was centered with a three-tiered white wedding cake made by the White Eagle Restaurant. An orchestra played music for dancing.

After a short wedding trip to Niagara Falls and parts of western New York State, the newlyweds will reside at 791 Lawrence Street, Rome. A trip to Florida is planned for sometime in July.

The bride is a graduate of Andover Central School and attended Alfred Agricultural and Technical Institute. She was formerly employed at the Griffiss Air Base in Rome.

The groom graduated from Transfiguration of Our Lord Parochial School and Rome High School and Trade School. He is employed at Revere Brass and Copper.

Pre-nuptial events included a variety shower by Mrs. Lewis G. Ackerman of Wellsville, the bride's aunt and a fee shower given by the bridesmaids and parents.

Out-of-town guests were present from Wellsville, Scio, Ithaca, Lowell, Frankfort, Barneveld, Auburn and Raquet Lake.
