

Mr. and Mrs. Gerald R. Zahradnik

Miss Rae Ellen Waldeck, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn C. Covel of 52 E. Greenwood St., became the bride of Gerald Raymond Zahradnik, Saturday, July 6, 1963 at 2:00 o'clock at the Andover Methodist Church.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Zahradnik of Cedar Rapids, Iowa.

The Reverend Alfred Gross, pastor, performed the double ring ceremony before an altar decorated in baskets of white delphinium and lighted candles.

Mrs. Ralph Burgett was the organist and accompanied Miss Barbara Pelton, soloist who sang the "Lord's Prayer" and "The Wedding Prayer".

The bride, given in marriage by her father wore a ballerina length gown with lace over taffeta. The fitted bodice was styled with a rounded neck and bracelet length sleeves. The bouffant skirt of ruffled net over taffeta featured a lace apron overskirt, with a bustle effect in the back. Her elbow length net veiling fell from a plain headband and she carried a colonial bouquet of purple orchid with white carnations and baby's breath.

Mrs. Roy Alden, Wellsville, cousin of the bride was the Matron-of-Honor. The bridesmaids were Mrs. Richard Happ, Buffalo, sister of the bride and Miss Sandra Craven, Sanborn. Mrs. Alden wore a street length gown of lilac brocaded taffeta, with a full skirt and short jacket. Her headpiece was of lilac colored nylon veiling and she carried a colonial bouquet of tinted carnations.

The bridesmaids' gowns were identical to the Matron-of-Honor in yellow and their bouquets were yellow carnations.

Nancy Alden, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Alden, was the flower girl. She wore a blue dotted swiss nylon dress with a white headpiece. She carried a basket of purple ageratium, yellow marigolds and white carnations. Jeffrey Briggs, son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Briggs, Andover acted as ring bearer and carried the rings on a heart shaped satin pillow.

Robert Zahradnik of Cedar Rapids, Iowa, was best man for his brother and the groomsmen were Dale Buresh and Norman Zahradnik, brother of the groom. The ushers were Gail Waldeck, Andover, brother of the bride, Richard Happ, Buffalo, brother-in-law of the bride.

Guests were present from: Wellsville, Scio, Andover, Ischua, The bride's mother chose a pink daeron dress with matching hat and beige accessories. The groom's mother wore a green print daeron dress with white accessories, each wore a white carnation corsage. Following the ceremony a reception was held at the Veterans of Foreign War Club, Wellsville, for approximately 100 guests. The bride's table was covered with a white linen table cloth which was centered with a four-tiered wedding cake, decorated with columns and topped with the miniature bride and groom.

Assisting hostesses were: Mrs. Joyce Thompson, Mrs. Margaret Carson of Wellsville, Mrs. Barbara Zahradnik, Cedar Rapids, Iowa, sister-in-law of the bridegroom, Miss Mary Margaret Bentley of Scio, cousin of the bride, was in charge of the guest book.

The bride's traveling costume was a white and blue print cotton with white accessories and a corsage of purple orchid. Following a wedding trip to Cedar Rapids, Iowa, the couple will reside at 27 1/2 Whitney Pl., Wellsville.

The bride graduated from Andover Central School and the groom graduated from Cedar Rapids High School and from Iowa State College and is employed at Air Preheater Co., Wellsville.

Pre-nuptial events include a variety shower by Mrs. Paul Briggs at the bride's home; a rehearsal party by the bride's parents at their home and a wedding dance at Cedar Rapids, Iowa Wednesday night.
