Manroe-Fowler

The marriage of Miss Konita Fowler and Francis Charles Manroe was solemnized in a double-blessing ceremony at the Community Memonite Church at Yorks Corners Saturday, June 29, 1963.

The Rev. Ivan Smoker performed the 1 o'clock ceremony before an altar decorated with baskets of pink and white peonies, sweet williams and foxglove with green fern.

Traditional wedding music was rendered by organist Jane Rosser, who played "Through the Years" and the "Wedding March" and two soloists Miss Marsha Roden, singing "Because" and Philip Harris, "I Love You Truly."

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert C. Fowler, R.D. 1, Genesee, and the groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Manroe of Andover.

Given in marriage by her father the bride chose a floor-length gown of nylon and cotton lace. Fashioned with a scalloped neckline and long, pointed sleeves, both trimmed with sequins, the gown was designed by Mrs. Claude Butler of Genesee and the bride's mother.

She wore a double-tiara crown of baby pearls and sequins, styled with a finger-tip veil enhanced by a sequined hem, and carried a white Bible, adorned with a white orchid, satin streamers, and blue forget-me-nots.

Teo Layfield, Wellsville was matron-of-honor, Miss Judy Buckwalter, Wellsville was maid-of-honor, and Elizabeth J. Fowler, Genesee, was bridesmaid.

The three attendants were dressed in gowns of pink, yellow and blue taffeta, respectively. They wore headdresses of nylon flowers with nylon veils, and carried baskets of pink apple blossoms and lilies-of-the-valley.

Elmer Manroe of Bath was best man for his brother's wedding. Ushers were Robert C. Fowler, Jr.

the bride's brother from Genesee, and James Morton of Oramel.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Foyler selected a beige cotton dress with rayon embroidery. A white pill box hat and white gloves completed her ensemble.

Mrs. Manroe chose a beige print dress with white gloves and hat. Both mothers wore corsages of red rosebuds and lilies-of-the-valley.

A reception was held at 2 p. m. at the Yorks Corners Grange Hall for 150 guests. Hostess Mrs. Claude Butler served the three-tiered wedding cake. The cake, trimmed with pink roses and lilies-of-the-valley designs, was topped with a miniature bride and groom.

Assisting hostesses were Frances Hains, Harrison Valley, Pa.; Sharon Perry, Genesee; Laurie Standard, Wellville; Regena Wilson, Belmont; Betty Costello, Genesee and Mildred Nauman of Ulysses, Pa.

Out-of-town guests attended from Andover, Hornell, Oramel, Wellsville, Belmont, West Union, East Aurora Cuba Addison Canisteo, Bath and North Tonawanda; Mills, Ulysses, Genesee and West Bingham, Pa.

Leaving for a wedding trip to Niagara Falls, the bride wore a white linen dress with matching accessories, and a lavender orchid.

Mrs. Manroe is a 1963 graduate of Wellsville High School and her husband graduated from Andover Central School in 1959. He served in the U. S. Air Force, and is now employed at Rosser's Laundry.

The couple will reside on the Stanards Road.

Prenuptial events included variety showers by Mrs. Wesley Beach, the bride's aunt; and by Miss Buckwalter; and a rehearsal party by the bride's parents.

SELF- REALIZATION

After the accident he was dragged out of the smashed car and rushed to the doc's office in the small town nearby.

"Afraid I'm the wrong fellow to help you," the doc said. "I'm a veterinarian."

"Go to work on me anyway," groaned the victim, "I was a jackass to go sixty on those tires."
