

GREENWOOD NEWS

Grace Young, Reporter

Twelve members of Scout Troop 62 are spending this week, August 4 - 11 at Camp Gorton on Waneta Lake. The two assistant Scout Masters, John Murray and David Lehman are camping with the boys. The Troop recommended Stanley Murray, Jr., and John Hunt to be initiated in to the Order of the Arrow this week. Drivers taking the boys and their equipment were Scoutmaster and Mrs. Edward Mullen, Stanley Murray, Sr., and Assistant Scout Master and Mrs. John Murray.

West Greenwood Grange voted to start a community project of cleaning up old rural cemeteries in Greenwood. The names were all put in a hat and the old Catholic Cemetery on West Hill was drawn for the one this summer. The first work bee was set for this Wednesday night. The announcement was also given at St. Mary's Catholic Church in Rexville Sunday to augment the workers. This was the site of the first Catholic Church that later moved to Rexville to rebuild.

Trustees of the Methodist Church have broken ground for a garage for the parsonage family. Volunteer labor can be used. Albert Lamphier and Clarence Stephens are in charge and can give work to anyone who comes. The building will be 16' x 24'.
