"There's More To See In '63"

That's the slogan of the 122nd annual Erie County Fair, August 17th to 24th inclusive, at the Hamburg Fairgrounds.

Offering over $50,000 in premiums in thousands of competitive exhibit categories, the Fair is spotlighting among others the following features:

Two auto thrill shows, afternoon and evening, opening day, Saturday, August 17th with advance circus acts.

Two competitive parades—WAR VETERANS, Sunday night, August 18th, VOLUNTEER FIREMEN, Friday night, August 23rd. The U. S. Air Force Drum and Bugle Corps and Bagpipe Band will be in concert Sunday afternoon and lead the War Veterans' Parade.

Don Ameche's International Showtime Circus, 30 wild animal, tumbling and acrobatic acts presented in the three-ring style of the continental circus Monday through Saturday of Fair week, afternoon and evening.

A five-event big car auto race the concluding Saturday afternoon August 24th with top drivers competing for $3,200, largest such prize offered in the east in recent years.

Afternoon and evening synchronized swimming acts and water safety programs in the Beauty Pool.

Three days of harness racing August 20th to 22nd inclusive. Six auto thrill shows in death defying maneuvers on the track.

A 100-car demolition derby the concluding night of the Fair. A six-day, sanctioned Horse Show.
