Welfare Dept. Honors Former Caseworker

Armand A. Orians

Armand A. Orians, a former caseworker in the Allegany County Welfare Department, was honored recently at a farewell party held at Long Vue, Wellsville, and attended by 18 of the 22 members of the department.

The dinner party, a social event customary for departing members in the department, included presentation of a gift and an original "farewell card" as a token of appreciation by former co-workers for "a year of congenial association." Mr. Orians' employment in the department was terminated when he publicly announced his candidacy for the office of County Welfare Commissioner on the Democratic ticket in the coming fall election.

The group in attendance enjoyed a fine dinner and social evening.

Charter Flight Confab Held

At a public conference on chartered airline flights convoked in New York City last week by Attorney General Louis J. Lefkowitz, representatives of travel agencies and airlines agreed that shady operators were giving their industry a black eye. The Attorney General stated that he favored self-regulation, if possible, to avoid charter flight strappings.
