

Mr. and Mrs. James Edward Oyer

The Blessed Sacrament Church in Andover was the scene of a double-ring ceremony, which united in marriage Miss Charlotte Ruth Dean of Andover, and James Edward Oyer of Hornell. The wedding was solemnized Saturday, August 17, 1963 at 11:00 a. m. The Rev. John B. Shea officiated before an altar banked with white gladiolus.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles D. Dean of the Andover Road, Andover, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Oyer of 90 Frank Steet, Hornell.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was attired in a white ballerina-length gown of bouquet taffeta, fashioned with a sabrine neckline. The fitted bodice and elbow-length sleeves were of Chantilly lace. The bouffant skirt was fashioned with a front panel of the lace and short-lace gloves completed her ensemble. Her three-tiered shoulder length veil of silk illusion was secured to a crown of white taffeta roses, sprinkled with seed pearls. Her only jewelry was a gold cross pendant, a gift from the groom. She carried a white prayer book on which was centered a Vandalia orchid with ivy and white streamers tipped with shattered white carnations.

Mrs. Oyer's only attendant was her sister, Miss Harriet Dean, who was dressed in a gown of American Beauty Rose fashioned with a velvet bodice and scoop neckline. The bouffant skirt was of chiffon. Her tiara headpiece set under a circle of rose net and white gloves completed her ensemble. She carried a bouquet of shattered pink carnations. Daniel McManus of Hornell served as best man.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Dean selected a navy sheath of nylon ribbonette with matching jacket, and white accessories. Her corsage was of Talisman roses. The groom's mother wore a sheath of white lace over pink with white accessories and a corsage of pink carnations. Mrs. Ruth Hooper of Gettysburg, Penna., grandmother of the groom, wore a dress of gray silk print with a corsage of Talisman roses.

Following the church ceremony, a wedding breakfast was served at Longe Vue in Wellsville to members of the immediate families. Later a reception was held at the home of the bride. Assisting hostesses were the Misses JoAnn Bennett and Sharon Silsby of Wellsville, Mrs. Bertha Hicks, and Mrs. Beatrice Miller of Corning. Guests attended from Corning, Gettysburg, Penna., Hornell, Genesee, Penna., Wellsville and Andover.

Dressed in a three-piece white knit suit with an orchid corsage, the bride left with her husband on a trip to a summer resort area.

Mrs. Oyer graduated from Andover Central School and attended The State University at Genesee. She will continue to be employed by the New York Telephone Company in Wellsville. Her husband graduated from Hornell High School, and is employed as a brakeman by the Erie-Lackawanna Railroad in Hornell.

The couple will reside at 168 South Main Street, Wellsville.

Appreciation

I wish to express my thanks to all those that remembered me with flowers, cards, gifts and acts of kindness while I was a patient in the hospital. They were all greatly appreciated.

Mrs. John Oakes entertained the Entre Nous Club at her home on Pleasant Ave., Thursday evening. A 7:30 dessert was served by the hostess followed by bridge with the awards being presented to Mrs. Fay E. Boyd and Mrs. Frank Holmes.

A horse traders' convention, founded by George Kane in 1921, and held each year since then, will continue this year with a program scheduled for August 21 to 25. The convention will be held at the Don Heers farm in Almond and booths have been set up on the convention grounds and a camp site is available for families bringing trailers or tents.

A card arrived at the News Office desk this week, spent by Howard Burdick from Kaptoyka Mapka, stating he was seeing many things that morning. The group visited the Kremlin Lenin Tomb, Red Square and many other places of interest. Planning to be home soon. Mr. Burdick is with a group selected by the "Goodwill People to People Program", that are touring areas in Europe and also behind the Iron Curtain.
