They can enter all or only one race in their age group
The public is invited to watch. The meet will start at 7:00 p. m.

Cowboy And Indian Night

Thursday night the Playground is having their big Pow Wow. Dress up in your cowboy and Indian costumes and bring your family.

The picnic will start at 6:00. Bring your own hot dogs and hamburgers. The children who sign up will be asked to bring Kool-aid, Catsup, Mustard, etc. The activities will begin after the picnic.

Your mummies can compete in the rolling pin throwing contest and nail driving contest.

Even baby sisters and brothers can win a contest by crawling the fastest.

There will also be a scavenger hunt for the older boys and girls. Also there will be a three legged race, wheelbarrow race and many others.

The big event of the night will be the war dance, quick draw contest and cowboy and Indian war and a big bonfire.

Prizes will be given for the best costumes.

Eating Contest

by Pat Dibble

The Eating Contest was held last Friday. We had strawberry jam on bread. Linda Middaugh won for the girls and Randy Gallagher won for the boys. The boys who entered were: Douglas Snyder, Gene Rosintoski, Jim MacMichael, Bob Brown, Rod Brown, Bob Joyce, Randy Gallagher, Charlie Joyce, Mark Snyder, Howard Freeland, Gus Weber, Eddy Sackett, Andy Gram, Donald Pitts, Steven Dunham, Jeff Dibble, Steve Dibble

The girls were: Pat Dibble, Lois Gram, Karol Gavin, Karen Davis, Linda Middaugh, Joyce Freeland, Patty Middaugh, Kathy Gorsuch, Cheryl Joyce, Kim Richardson. Everybody did real good.

Making Hangers

by Joyce Dibble

This year on the Playground the children are covering hangers with foam cushions.

The colors are purple, pink, green and blue. They take a certain color and wrap it around the hanger and then put many designs on it.

Talent Show

The Playground saw many varied talents Friday afternoon. Our big winner was Jimmy Pitts, Jimmy sang a very nice song "Rain, Rain Go Away."

Debbie Baker looked very cute in her black wig. Debbie twisted with a houla hoop. Nobody had a watch so we couldn't time Debbie, but she sure did it for a long time.

Karol Gavin played a very pretty piece on her accordion. She certainly can play good.

Debbie Childs in her cowgirl suit recited a joke for us. Debbie makes a petty little comedian.

Patty Middaugh in a pretty blue dress sang "The Battle of Jerico". She did a very good job and was tied for first place until the final round of voting.

Linda Snyder was our little acrobatic. She turned a summersault and walked on her hands with her brother, Douglas's help.

Randy Gallagher and Charles Joyce did a skit which involved several of the younger boys. Everybody enjoyed their skit even though they were telephone poles.

Lisa Howland recited "Mary had a Little Lamb, He Died." She was so cute that she almost stole the show away.

Ronald and Donald Pitts sang "Bill Jorgan's Boat". They did a very good job.

After the show everybody who participated had popicles.

The winner was chosen by the audience applause. It was very close but Jimmy was everybody's favorite.

Tent City

Thursday night the Andover Playground was the scene of yellow and tan tents known as Tent City. After dark, they had a bonfire which kept them warm. They even had a little rain to liven things up.
