Mr. and Mrs. Frank Miglis and family and his father, Frank Miglis, Sr., left Andover Monday to locate in their new home at Hamburg, New Jersey.

Many fortunate 4-H boys and girls are busy preparing for the 1963 State Exposition held at Syracuse on Aug 27 through Sept. 2nd. Through elimination contests, conducted on County and District basis, these boys and girls have been chosen to represent the 4-H Club Department in exhibiting, judging, demonstration, tractor operator's contests, and other phases of the State Fair Program. Among the Dairy exhibitors is Raymond Mead of Andover and in the Horse exhibitors are Martha, Victoria and Robert Lynch of Andover.

The Post Noble Grands Club of Andover Rebekah Lodge, met at the home of Mrs. Bertha Hardy for a 6:30 supper Wednesday evening. The regular business meeting followed with election of officers for the coming year. Mrs. Irene Hann was re-elected President. Twelve were present.

The boat flotilla of decorated water craft sponsored annually by the Lamoka-Waneta Lakes Association was held on Waneta Lake last Sunday. Decatur Clarke of Andover won first prize of $25 for his "floating island" depicting an old scottish castle surrounded by flowers and greenery masses, with bagpipe music coming from the ancient building. He flew the Clarke family flag and was assisted by William MacCrea of Alfred. W. L. Williams, president of the Lamoka-Waneta Lakes Association extended an invitation to all of the entries to compete in next Sunday's, Sept. 1st, parade to start at 2 P. M. from Fleet's on Lake Lamoka under the chairmanship of Richard Fleet. Prizes totaling $50 will be given.

An auto driven by Lloyd D. Hollenbeck, RD Greenwood, was damaged when it struck a deer in County Rt. 22, Town of Andover. The deer ran from the left of the highway into the path of his south-bound auto, Mr. Hollenbeck told state police.

Gov. Rockefeller has appealed to local officials to step up traffic law enforcement over the long Labor Day week-end "to safeguard the lives of our citizens, the drivers on the road and their families."

Card Of Thanks

The Family of Minnie Marvin will hold in grateful remembrance the many expressions of sympathy and acts of kindness extended to them. We also wish to thank the OES, Rebekah Lodge, Past Noble Grands and the ladies who furnished and put on the dinner, and to those who contributed to the memorial book in the Andover Free Library.
