Greenwood Central School News

The school cafeteria will be open to students starting September 4. There will be no change in cafeteria prices from those in effect at the close of school in the spring. The extra milk program will be offered once again for grades K-6. The milk tickets are valid for extra milk either in the cafeteria or for the extra milk period. The cafeteria staff will again be in charge of Mrs. Margaret Brewster who will be assisted by Mrs. Grace Woodworth and Mrs. Jennie Downey.

The summer maintenance program under the direction of Stanley Holt is nearing completion. Holt was assisted by Michael Sky and Roy Bennett. In the garage buses are painted and primed ready to roll after much work in the summer, especially on the bodies. Harlan Waters is Chief Mechanic and was assisted part time by Floyd Cady.

The bus drivers for the coming year in addition to Waters are: Elton White, Milo Downey, Clair Rollins, Genevieve Smith, Vaughn Smith, Glenn Stephen and Michael Sky.

All positions on the faculty are complete except for Commercial. Teachers are: Mrs. Anna White Kindergarten; Mrs. Eleanor Lamphier, First Grade; Mrs. Virginia York, Second Grade; Mrs. Virgil Streeter, Third Grade; Mrs. Mary Jane McNeill, Fourth Grade; Mrs. Bernice Plaisted, Fifth Grade; Mrs. Ellen Sickler, Sixth Grade; Mrs. Flora Crawford, Elementary Remedial; Mrs. June Rollins, Music; Mrs. Carol Reed, Art; Mrs. Charity McCormick, School Nurse-Teacher; Mrs. Margaret Fehl, Social Studies; Mrs. Inez Sutton, Junior-High; Mrs. Shirley Cook, Homemaking; Mrs. Marian Hussey Language and Library; Mrs. Nancy Gould, Librarian; Raymond Duke, Mathematics; George Tubbs, Science; Robert Hoagland, Agriculture; James DeMarte, English; Myron Phillips, Guidance; David Gleason, Industrial Arts and Mechanical Drawing; Maurice Folts, Physical Education and Coaching; Reed Lowrey, Driver Education. Viola Clossy and Lillian Gratto will serve as Teachers' Aides.

Mrs. Eleanor Lamphier—Grade 1: Graduate of Jasper Central School 1957 and Geneseo State College for Teachers, 1961. Two years experience in Hornell Public School system at Lincoln School with third grade. In June 1962 was married to Harley Lamphier, of Greenwood, a Marine Veteran presently employed by the Corning Glass Works. They are building a new home on the Jackson Hill Road.

While in college, Mrs. Lamphier was a member of the Student Education Association and the Women's Athletic Association.

Mrs. Ellen Sickler—Grade 6: Graduate of Montrose, Pa., High School in 1959 and Mansfield, Pa., State Teachers' College in June 1963. A native of Cortland, N. Y., summers are spent at the family cottage on Green Lake near Tully, N. Y.

While at Mansfield she was President of the Women's Dormitory and a member of the Student Council and the Board of Presidents.

Mrs. Sickler became the bride of Robert Sickler, also a Mansfield Graduate, just this month. They will reside in an apartment in the Goodno residence.

Mrs. Nancy Gould—Librarian: Graduate of State University College at Geneseo with a B.S. in Education and including a major in Library Science. Her interest in Library work started when she did some work in her high school library while a student. During the past year she has served as librarian of the Junior High School in Hilton, N. Y., a position from which she resigned to be nearer her home in Dansville where she lives with her husband. Her hobbies are cooking, swimming, bowling, reading and taking care of her home. She will be in Greenwood two days a week. The remaining part of the time will be spent in the Addison school with whom her services are shared.

Mrs. Shirley Cook—Homemaking: Graduate of Canisteo Central School. From the State University College for Teachers at Buffalo she earned a B.S. degree in Home Economics. Since then additional studies have been undertaken at both Alfred University and Alfred Institute of Technology.

She has taught homemaking for four years at the Scio Central School before resigning to look after her family. Since then, she has substituted in several positions in Jasper, Canisteo and Greenwood.

She and Rodney Cook, her husband, live in Greenwood and have one daughter, Deborah who will enter Kindergarten this year.

Mrs. Cook has traveled through Central United States, the Eastern Seaboard and to Mexico City and the surrounding area. In addition she toured one summer in nine European countries during which time she visited relatives in Ireland. On the same tour she spent some time in Casablanca, North Africa.

Mrs. Flora Crawford—Elementary Remedial: Graduate of Academic Department of Houghton College in 1914. Is a possessor of a Life Certificate for elementary work and has taken additional courses from Colleges for Teachers at Oswego, Cortland, and Geneseo the latter which she attended this summer. She is a veteran teacher and at one time retired.

Her first teaching was in the Town of Jasper. She has taught in several other areas of the state including Hornby in Steuben Co. While in Florida, one term of Kindergarten was taught.

She has helped her husband, Floyd, operate a dairy farm up to the time of his retirement and is the mother of three sons and a daughter. Mr. and Mrs. Crawford since their retirement have traveled in thirty states and Canada.

Plans for their residence in Greenwood are incomplete. It is of interest to learn that part of her childhood was spent in the nearby Jackson Hill area.

Mr. Myron Phillips—Guidance: Graduate of State University of New York, Teacher's College at Oswego with a B.S. degree. He earned his Master's degree at the Teacher's College, Columbia University. Additional graduate work has been taken at the State University of New York, Teacher's College at Plattsburgh, at Lawrence University, and at Syracuse University. His work in Guidance was at Columbia.

Phillips is a teacher of six years in the field of Industrial Arts and will be working in what he considers a rewarding field of Guidance, for the first time. Last year he was a member of the faculty of the Rome, N. Y., school system.

He is married and has one son, Kevin. His wife is a Homemaking teacher who will not be active until her family is older.

Phillip's hobbies are hunting and reading. He is very interested in the work of the Junior Chamber of Commerce and has been active in the organization in Rome where he was Past Acting President. He has been Internal Vice President and a State Director.

He is a member of the following professional groups: National Education Association, New York State Teacher's Association, New York State Guidance Association, and American Association of Industrial Arts Teachers.

The family will reside in Woodhull, where he will also work on a shared service basis spending three days in Greenwood and two days in Woodhull.

Mr. David Gleason—Industrial Arts and Mechanical Drawing: Graduate of Wellsville Central High School in 1959 with a major in Math, Science, and Industrial Arts. He earned his B.S. degree at the New York State University for Teachers at Oswego, graduating in August 1963. He majored in Industrial Arts and minored in English.

While in High School his activities included dramatics, wrestling, and industrial arts club. In college he was a member of the Student Council, a member of a social fraternity, and also experimented with creative writing. A few poems were published, one in a national student poetry anthology and two in local magazines. While in college he was a member of the PLC program of the United States Marine Corps.

Gleason is single and in addition to his interest in education joins his father in operation of a forest plantation in the township of West Almond where they raise and sell Christmas and lumber trees.

He will reside at his home in Wellsville. His time is shared with the Whitesville Central School where he will teach in the morning, coming to Greenwood for the afternoon session.

For those who view with alarm the scenery was never better.
