Smith-Conti

Miss Patricia Ann Conti, daughter of Mrs. Joseph Conti and the late Mr. Conti of Jamestown, N. Y., became the bride of Mr. Robert Theodore Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Smith of Andover, Saturday, August 31, 1963.

The ceremony was solemnized at a Nuptial High Mass at St. James Church in Jamestown by Rev. Valentine Welker.

Given in marriage by her brother, John Conti, the bride was attired in a floor length gown of white rosepoint lace over bridal taffeta with matching bolero jacket. The gown was styled with a sabrina neckline and long sleeves and a chiffon cummerbund train. A rosepoint lace pillbox held her bouffant illusion-veiling and she carried a cascade of white shasta mums and ivy.

Miss Mary Bellandi of Jamestown and Michael J. Smith of Syracuse were the honor attendants.

A reception was held at the Jamestown YWCA following the ceremony.

Upon the return from their wedding trip the couple will reside at 19 A Shirley Lane, Jamestown. Mr. Smith is an instructor at the Jamestown Community College.

Hoagland-Baker

The Andover Presbyterian Church was the setting for the marriage of Miss Melinda S. Baker to Gary Hoagland, Saturday afternoon, September 7, 1963 at 2 o'clock.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Baker, Baker Rd., Andover and the groom is the son of Mrs. Ronald Hoagland, Rochambeau Ave. and the late Cecil Hoagland.

The single ring ceremony was performed by the pastor, the Rev. Willis V. Poole before an altar decorated with vases of mixed, colored gladioli.

The bride given in marriage by her father, wore a white chiffon street length dress fashioned with a fitted lace bodice with long tapered sleeves and buttons at the back. She wore a lace circlet hat with a short veil and matching lace gloves. Her only jewelry was a pearl bracelet, gift of the groom. She carried a bouquet of white carnations and pink sweetheart rosebuds with streamers over a white lace purse.

Miss Cheryl Baker, Andover, cousin of the bride, was her attendant. She wore a fushia street-length dress with matching hat. Her corsage was of pink and white carnations.

Daniel Hoagland, Buffalo, served as best man for his brother.

The bride's mother wore a brown print dress with brown accessories. The groom's mother was attired in a dior blue dress with white accessories. Each wore a corsage of pink and white carnations.

Following the ceremony a reception was held for 50 guests at the home of her cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Burger, Hornell. Bouquets of mixed colored gladioli decorated the bride's table centered by a three tiered wedding cake trimmed with white bells and topped with a miniature bride and groom. Mrs. Ruth Miller, Olean, cut the cake and was assisted by Mrs. Newell Baker, Miss Janet Burger of Andover and Mrs. John Baker of Bolivar.

The bride attended Andover Central School and the groom graduated from Burgard Vocational School in Buffalo and is employed in Andover.

Following a short wedding trip to Washington, D. C., the couple will reside on Barney St., Andover.
