Over 100 members of the Allegany District including several from Andover attended the homecoming honoring the District Deputy R. W. Jeanne Gibney, Belfast and District Grand Lecturer R. W. Clyde Yorton, Andover, held at the Belfast Masonic Temple Wednesday evening.

The 1964 Reunion of the Matrons and Patrons of Allegany District of OES was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Everett Clair Thursday evening, Sept. 19. A 6:30 tureen supper was enjoyed by 17 guests. Past Most Worthy Florence Potter, Past Grand Matron of the Grand Chapter of the Order of the Eastern Star and Right Worthy Harry Potter of Lake Placid, were the honored guests.

The Past Grand's of the Rebekah Lodge will meet at the home of Mrs. Ralph Burgett Friday evening September 27th. A 6:30 tureen supper will be served.

The thermometer dropped to a freezing point Monday night of a 22 degrees, the coldest temperature for the date since 1947. The following days have been fair and warm.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Kemp and Miss Edith Potter of Independence spent last week on a vacation motor trip. They visited Mrs. Marion Cook and family at Fulton. Mrs. Cook will be remembered as the daughter of the late Rev. and Mrs. A. W. MacDougald of Andover. They were guests of relatives at Island Park in the Thousand Islands, followed the St. Lawrence River on the Canadian side, a guided tour at the Moses Saunders Power Dam, crossed the International Bridge and visited the St. Lawrence Seaway project, watching three different types of ships pass thru the Eisenhower lock. En route home they visited the Corning Glass Center at Corning, arriving in Andover late Saturday.
