Mrs. Lynn Trowbridge entertained the members of the Entre Nous Club at a 7:30 bridge dessert at her home Thursday evening. Honors were presented to Mrs. Maud Allen and Mrs. Harriet Hoover.

Mrs. Gertrude Kilbane entertained the Canasta group at a turken dinner at her home on Pleasant Ave., last Wednesday evening in honor of the birthday anniversary of Mrs. Margaret Cable.

Fourteen adults from the Baptist Church attended the Allegany-Cattaraugus Association of Baptist Churches held in Salamanca, Sunday. Those furnishing cars were: Rev. Holmes, Everett Clair, Richard Heselton and Ted Foster.

Railroad officials are investigating the derailment of thirty-six cars and four diesel locomotives units of an Erie-Lackawanna freight train at East Corning last Friday. A spokesman said that 500 feet of both main tracks were torn up and damage could run as high as $500,000. Trains were delayed for several hours.

Andover firemen were called out to control a grass fire Thursday about 6:30 p.m. Grass fires along the Erie-Lackawanna tracks, first in a month, kept firemen in six towns in the county busy for nearly six hours. Although there was no proof authorities agree the sparks from the stack of a diesel engine probably touched off the dry grass. Deputy County Fire Coordinator George Mickle reported that the Cuba firemen were the first to be called out at 1:08 p.m. Mickle warned that with dry conditions in the area the danger of grass fires remains.

Andover Rod and Gun Club members under the supervision of Howard Nichols, released 280 brook trout fingerlings in the East Valley Creek Tuesday morning.

The phone number for the residence of Claire C. Backus has been changed and now is 478-444.

Mr. and Mrs. Milford Bassett of Independence are moving this week to the Williams apartment in Whitesville where they plan to reside during the winter months.

District Deputy President Hazel Pingrey and staff of Belmont installed the officers of Andover Lodge No. 303 Wednesday night.

Mrs. Donald Gavin has been selected as a member of the Home-Making Advisory Assistant Committee to the County 4-H Home-making.

Several baseball fans from Andover attended the opening game of the World Series in New York Wednesday.

Appreciation

I wish to express my sincere thanks for the cards, flowers, gifts and other remembrances I received while in the hospital and while convalescing in my home.
