Canadian Geese Take Advantage of Alle. Pond

A number of geese have been making use of the pond of Walter Miller in the Town of Independence for the past week. The geese have stopped off on Mr. Miller's pond according to Stephen Clarke, Chairman of the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee.

Many ponds of this type are being built in Allegany County each year under the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation program in cooperation with the Allegany County Soil Conservation District and the Soil Conservation Service. Mr. Clarke indicates that Alle. County is in need of many ponds like that of Mr. Miller's to encourage migrating waterfowl to drop off on their southward flight; for recreational purposes and to provide water for livestock.

wants pictures of all the children in this area to publish in a future series entitled "Citizens of Tomorrow". To make it representative of the entire trading area we want pictures of as many youngsters as possible. There is no age limit, neither is it necessary to be a subscriber to this newspaper. Therefore, we ask the cooperation of all the parents (and grandparents, too!) to help make this a success. The Studio hours and location are shown below. Just take your children there and several poses will be taken free of charge by a nationally known children's photographer who specializes in feature photography for newspapers. All proofs will be shown and you select your favorite pose for publication. There is no charge or obligation. You may, if you wish, order photographs for gifts or keepsakes from the studio, but this is entirely up to you.
