

"TREATS FOR TOTS"—FUN FOR ALL!

An Editorial

Last year it was very gratifying to see that Andover Central School Students were capable of showing good judgment in their treatment of Hallowe'en.

To the best of our knowledge the Village Streets were kept clean all evening, thereby eliminating the possibility and danger of any motorists being injured or having their autos damaged from this source.

We credited the parents and grown-ups for contributing their share towards making it the most quiet and damage free Hallowe'en here in many years.

Of course there was the usual amount of window soaping and hi-jinks that is normally considered part of Hallowe'en.

This year we would again like to see this exemplary type of conduct shown by both the children and parents as well as the rest of the grown-ups.

We certainly can't see where any useful purpose can be served or strength of character developed in young people of today if parents allow half or two-thirds grown children to roam the streets with large paper bags collecting loot in a door-to-door canvass under the threat of "Tricks or Treats". To us this appears as a modified type of blackmail because the gist of the expression is that if you don't give me a treat I'll pull a dirty trick on you!

How much better it would sound to have a "Treat for Tots" expression for the tiny kids to use when they are all dressed up in their Hallowe'en costumes and go to pay their neighbors a brief call to show off their finery, and of course accept a hand-out if offered.

Last year the Chamber of Commerce and members of the American Legion got together and put on a program for all local school children which was climaxed with a dance at the Legion Home. This was well attended with everyone having a good time.

This year the same two groups have gotten together and are presenting an even fuller program than last year thru the courtesy and assistance of the Manager of the local Theatre.

Due to the extreme drought throughout the state, the annual bonfire will be dispensed with, but a full length movie will be put on free for all of the young people wishing to attend. In addition to this, a dance will be held at the Legion Home for all Andover Central School Students from Junior and Senior High.

The success of these ventures will be strictly up to the Students of Andover Central School! It has resulted from their suggestions in the past—they will be reaping the harvest.

Let's hope that the interest shown by the adults in making this possible won't be in vain!

VOTE NO! on AMENDMENT NO. 4—An Editorial which appeared in last week's "Ellicottville Post."

On November 5, voters will be asked to pass on a number of constitutional changes in New York State. Amendment No. 4, the Home Rule Amendment, is receiving a good deal of publicity in the daily press as a step in the direction of allowing local communities to solve their own problems at the local level. All well and good. No doubt the amendment does have some merit. However, every time you get something from a paternalistic state or federal government, you give in return. In this instance, the bait held out by the Office of Local Government in Albany, by the Association of Towns, by the County Officers Association, and by the Conference of Mayors to local governments to vote in favor of this home rule amendment is that they could repeal existing requirements to publish legal notices.

To date in their efforts to promote this amendment, the advocates have carefully and successfully concealed their attempt to restrict the "peoples right to know."

The price of liberty is eternal vigilance. Consequently, we urge all voters to vote NO! to Amendment No. 4 on November 5th.
