Elm Valley Pokes 4-H News
 The organization meeting of the Elm Valley Pokes was held Saturday, Oct. 19th at the home of Cindy and Brenda Preston.
 We had two visitors Patty Nye of Trapping Brook Road and Mrs. Roberta Baker, Assistant 4-H County Agent, who talked about new projects.
 During this meeting we elected new officers:
 President, Marie Wahl; Vice President, Kathy Gavin; Secretary, Cindy Preston; Treasurer, Penny Madison, News Reporter, Karol Gavin; Song Leader, Elaine Burch. We have 7 new members they are: Penny Madison, Bonnie and Joyce Rouse, Lynn Patton, Kimberly Hubbard, Shirley Lewis, Brenda Jackson, Susan McClure.
 Mrs. Norma Preston went to Wellsville and took the lessons "Know Your Sewing Machine". These lessons teach the beginning process of the sewing machine parts, how to thread and operate the machine. Mrs. Preston presented the first lesson at this meeting. Later she will teach the older girls how to use some of the attachments. The younger girls are to practice threading the machine and sewing a straight seam.
 The older girls are making (lined) corduroy jumpers at the next meeting we are to have our material, our patterns trimmed and our names on each piece.
 The younger girls are going to make their sewing boxes. They
